Acknowledgment

A milestone in one's life is made possible by the contributions of many others along the way. The successful completion of this research work is not different for me. I am extending my whole hearted gratitude to my Guide Prof. N. B. Pasalkar, Director, Directorate of Technical Education, Maharashtra State, and Ex-Professor, Govt. College of Engg, Pune. He opened the door for me and turned my long-awaited dream into reality by giving me an extraordinary opportunity to join him as research scholar. He provided me the enthusiastic guidance, motivation, and instructions to press on through many frustrating times which are common in research work. As a mentor, his desire and ability to support me in whatever I needed were crucial to finish this task.

I would like to thank Prof. (Dr.) A.D. Sahastrabudhe, Director, GCOEP and Prof. V.K. Kokate, Ex-Director, GCOEP. A special thanks goes to Prof. (Mrs.) C.V. Joshi, head, Dept. of E & Tc. Engg for providing a best possible stimulating working environment. I am thankful to Prof. (Dr.) M.A. Joshi. Prof. (Dr.) P.P. Rege for our many discussions on the issues related to research and time to time encouragement.

I cannot express my gratitude in words towards Specially, Prof. (Dr.) Mukul S. Sutaone, my colleague who was ever ready to share the tasks as well share his valuable opinions through-out the thesis writing.

Without Support of Mr. Rakesh Mehta, my friend, a philosopher in this area of work, who never differed nights from the day while working with me and left no stone un-turned while extending the support. Thanks also go to his team, for their constant support throughout design, development as well implementation.

Mrs. Sunanda, my wife and a banker by Profession was the helping hand throughout the course of project, in every aspect needs a mention here.

Finally, I wish my whole hearted thanks to my Guide and Philosopher Prof. N.B. Pasalkar, once again for stand by my every decision, I made whether out of choice or compulsion.
