

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Any kind of work whether a big or small requires the blessings of Almighty God from beginning to the end. With the immense presence and unwavering grace of God, I could complete this study.

This research work is the result of enthusiastic and spontaneous cooperation of several persons without whose help and assistance, the completion of this thesis would have not only been difficult but impossible. Although it is impossible to recall each and every person whose support and contribution has helped me directly or indirectly in completing this work yet I shall be failing in my duty if I do not mention a few of them.

At the outset, I would like to express my profoundest sense of gratitude to my supervisor, Dr. Dilip D. Bhatt, Associate Professor, Shri V.D. Kanakiya Arts and M.R. Sanghavi Commerce College, Savarkundla. His incessant encouragement, support and cooperation as a guide can neither be expressed in words nor be repaid. To him and his family, I sincerely acknowledge my indebtedness for maintaining family relations.

I am grateful to thank Dr. Kamal Mehta, Prof. and Head, Dept. of English & CLS, Saurashtra University, Rajkot, for his invariant guidance. It is he who always lends a hand to all the students of the Department. I extend my gratitude to Dr. Jaydeepsinh Dodiya for his whole-hearted support right from the beginning of this so called 'pilgrimage of Research'. I am also thankful to Dr. R. B. Zala, Dr. Sanjay Mukherjee, Miss. Dhvani Vachharajani and all the faculties of the Department, who have been all very generous in their support and cooperation. I feel myself fortunate enough to have been the student of the department and can barely put into words for what I feel when I think of the contribution of the department to my growth as an individual.

I would also like to thank Dr. Mahendra Chotaliya, Associate Prof., Dept. of Education, Sardar Patel University, V. V. Nagar for his suggestions and corrections wherever it needed. It was his continuous guidance and valuable inputs which helped me to define the direction of the study. I am thankful to Dr. Rajendra Chotaliya, Saurashtra University, Rajkot for his moral support and continuous inspiration for my further study. I oblige my sincere gratitude to Dr. Hitesh Raviya, M.S.University, Baroda for his guidance and cooperation. I am also thankful to one of my true friend Kirti Ramanuj, Lecturer, Govt. Polytechnic, Amreli for helping me in every possible ways.

Many thanks also go to my dear friends and colleagues who did not hesitate to offer a hand or suggestions during the difficult times of this journey. I cannot thank them enough for their unfailing support and friendship.

How can I forget to thank all the teachers, principals and C.R.C. co-ordinators of RMC (Rajkot Municipal Corporation) schools for their valuable co-operation? I am truly grateful for their time, trust, and commitment.

I don't find words to thank my parents and parents-in-law who have constantly awoken my spirit for further study. I also thank my all family members who have waited silently to accomplish this work and always stood by me tolerating all the inadequacy and irregularity. They had been an inexhaustible support right through this long voyage. I shall never be able to lend words to their sacrifice.

Finally, special thanks is reserved for my little boy Jainil and so caring husband, Rupesh. His great support, love, understanding, and constant encouragement which kept me focused and helped me to find the strength to continue when things got tough. I would not have made it without his unwavering faith in my ability to successfully complete my study.
