ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Like all other researches, this work is also the result of the interaction of a number of minds. Many persons at many places have contributed directly or indirectly to the completion of this study. First and foremost, I owe a deep sense of appreciation and gratitude to my Research Director, Prof. V.V.L.Narasimha Rao, M.com.,Ph.D, who has consistently persuaded me to complete the work. I owe him an enormous personal debt for his intellectual leadership, encouragement and perceptive criticism. But for his constant encouragement and guidance, this work would not have seen the light of the day.

I also take the opportunity to thank my teacher, Dr. A.V.S.Baskara Rao, Reader, A.N.R.College, Gudivada for his lectures and constructive suggestions in Statistics and Econometrics in the early stages of the study. A special word of thanks is due to Mr. Uma Krishna.K, Assistant Professor in Statistics, GEETAM College of Management Studies, Visakhapatnam, for providing the computer packages and statistical assistance at various stages of the study.
I am thankful to the management of the G.M.R. Institute of Technology, Rajam who have provided the computer facility to me. I am particularly grateful to Mr. M. Raghu Varma Raju, computer programmer, who took personal interest and helped me in completing the computer processing.

I am grateful to the authorities at the Stock Exchange, Hyderabad; Indian Institute of Sciences, Banglore; Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore; Institute for Social and Economic Growth, Bangalore; Institute for Financial Management and Research, Chennai; Indian Institute of Technology, Chennai; Andhra University, Visakhapatnam; Sree Venkateswara University, Tirupathi; Nagarjuna University, Nugarjuna Nagar, Guntur who have permitted me to collect the data from their libraries.

Lastly, I must thank my mother Mrs. S. Sarojini Devi, my husband Mr. R. Narasimha Rao and Master Amartya Prem, my lovely son, for their encouraging attitude and for the time they spared to complete the work.
