ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I express my heart-felt gratitude to my God whose constant love sustains in all my endeavours.

I express my deep gratitude and indebtedness to my guide Dr. S. Sivadasan, Professor and Head, Department of History, Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady, whose patience and gentle persuasiveness and timely interventions gave the impetus to work towards the completion of my thesis. He has been a source of inspiration and support throughout the work and he allotted time for me always in his busy schedule.

I am grateful to Dr. Suresh Jnaneswaran, Professor and Head, Department of History & Dean of Social Sciences, University of Kerala, for his valuable suggestions.

I would like to thank Dr. N.J. Francis, Reader, Department of History, Sree Sankaracharya University of Sanskrit, Kalady and Dr. Thulaseedharan Asari, who retired from the University College, Thiruvananthapuram for their help and suggestions.

I owe my gratitude to all the staffs of Kerala University Library, which was my research centre, for their assistance throughout the preparation of the thesis.

I have made use of different archives and libraries. I wish to thank Mrs. Geetha, Archivist, National Archives and the staffs of Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, P.C. Joshi Archives, New Delhi, State Archives of Kerala and Tamilnadu, KPAC Office Library, Kayamkulam, Sree Chithira Thirunal Library, AKG Study Centre and MN Memorial Centre, Thiruvananthapuram.

The acknowledgement would not be complete without mentioning the encouragement and moral support given my family members and friends at each stage of this work.
