There are so many forces, divine and human, which have made it possible for this study to see the light of the day. First of all I would like to give my thanks to Bodhisattva for his infinite grace and mercy that continued to enlighten me during every foot step in my research endeavor.

In the first place, I would like to reveal my gratitude and indebtedness to my virtuous supervisor Dr. Vijai Sarup Caprihan for his erudite guidance from the very early stage of this research work, as well as giving me extraordinary experiences throughout the work. Above all and the most needed, he provided me unflinching encouragement and support in all the ways he could have given.

My family provided me the right kind of support, be it financial or emotional, to strive for excellence in the field of my study. My Grand Parents Mr. Manik Chand Harit and especially my grandmother Late Smt. Ratan Devi always supported me to step ahead in the life. I always found my father Mr. Satya Prakash Harit, my mother Mrs. Madhu Bala, my younger brothers Mr. Rohit Harit, and Mr. Vineet Harit, my younger sisters Miss Shradha Harit and Miss. Shrankhla beside me for all kinds of help and behind me for all their support. They have always showered immense affection on me and have been a great motivator all the time.
It's not easy for a married man with a kid to continue with studies, but it was my better half Mrs. Kusum Verma who along with my lovable daughter Miss. Pihu Harit always shared the light moments and supported extravagantly during the whole tenure of research and has always been a great source of inspiration.

I am appreciative to the cooperation of my co-researchers Mr. Sanjeev Singh, Mr. Rohit Rajwanshi, Mrs. Pooja Srivastava, Dr. Shaveta Sachdeva, Dr. Shweta Chaudhary, Mr. Tej Singh, Miss. Sukhmeet Kaur, Miss Shipra Agrawal, Miss. Poonam Mishra, Miss. Neelni Giri Goswami and all other research scholars throughout my tenure.
