Acknowledgements

It gives me great pleasure in expressing my gratitude to all those people who have supported me and had their contributions in making this thesis possible. These not many words purely communicate my traditional gratitude but cannot communicate the depth of my gratitude to them.

I have to begin with by thanking my supervisor and mentor Prof. Raghuvinder Singh, under whose brilliant direction this work has been carried out. He patiently provided the vision, encouragement and advice necessary for me to complete my thesis. I am thankful to him.

At the same time, I am very much thankful to Prof. Narinder Gupta, Department of Laws, H.P. University for providing generous help and valuable suggestions during the study. My special thanks are also due to Dr. O. P. Chauhan, Professor, Dr. Kailash Thakur, Professor, Dr. H. R. Jhingta, Professor, Dr. S. N. Sharma, Professor, Dr. Kamal Jeet Singh, Professor, Dr. Sanjay Sindhu, Professor and Dr. Sunil Deshta, Professor, Department of Laws, H.P. University, Shimla for their encouragement and support during the study. I put across my genuine thanks to my all teachers at the University.

I acknowledge my indebtedness and deep gratitude to the learned authors whose articles and other relevant material have been referred in the study and enlisted in the bibliography.

My special thanks to Mr. Prem Sharma for helping me in the editorial work and marvellous support at different level of my research work. I am extremely thankful for the support received from the computer staff and the Law library staff of the University. They have made a substantial contribution in the completion of the assignment.
I take this chance to express thanks to my associate Ph.D. students and friends who were always with me in time of necessity. Thanks also due to Mr. Devam Bhutani for his help and support.

I am particularly thankful to my parents for their love and support in my educational pursuits.
