ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words are often too weak to express one's inner feelings of indebtedness to one's benefactors. The same difficulty haunts me in penning down the deep sense of gratitude.

It has been a great pleasure and privilege for the investigator to conduct the present arduous, laborious, precious and challenging research under the supervision of Dr. Romesh Chand, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla-5. The investigator takes this opportunity to express his sincere and deep sense of gratitude to the supervisor for his excellent spirit, suggestions and constant encouragement along with his kind and sympathetic attitude and efficient guidance from the beginning to the completion of this research. Indeed, without his seasoned supervision this work might not have been shaped out so well.

I also wish to express my gratitude to Dr. Satish Chand Bhadwal, Reader and Chairman, Department of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla-5 for his proper guidance regarding statistical techniques used in this study.

Considerable gratitude is due to Dr. Lokesh Koul, Emeritus Professor, Professor B. P. Verma, Dean, Faculty of Education, Dr. Kulwinder Singh, Dr. Y.K. Sharma for valuable suggestions in expressing and organising the material.

I offer my hearty thanks to Smt. U. Subrahmaniam, Deputy Director (Environment), Ministry of Environment and Forests, Government of India, New Delhi and Sh. N. S. Tiwana (Executive Director), Smt. Neelima Jerath (Principal Scientific Officer), Mr. S.K. Sexena (Senior Scientific Officer) of Punjab State Council for Science and Technology, Chandigarh for collecting the requisite and beneficial material to this research.

Greatful thanks are due to the officials and Resource Persons Non-Governmental Organisations and Principals, Programme Incharge, NEAC and students of various schools for their willing co-operation and help during the course of data collection.

In take this opportunity to express my gratitude and indebtedness to my respected Father Sh. Narinder Kumar, and Mother, Smt. Oma Devi and all family members for their kind blessing throughout my research work.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not place on record my greatful thanks to my wife Smt. Vandana and loving sons, Abhinav and Abhilove without whose sacrifice, great patience inspiration, co-operation and motivation, I could not have been able to complete the present research.

I sincerely acknowledge the authors whose work have been consulted and quoted in this work's preparation.

My thanks are also due to the staff members of the Himachal Pradesh University Library for their co-operation.

I express my thanks to my friend Mr. Shailendra Gupta, whose stimulating encouragement throughout the entire course of the study enabled me to accomplish the investigation.

I am also obliged to Principal and colleagues of Government Senior Secondary School, Lambra, District Hoshiarpur for providing me necessary facilities during the course of this work.

In owe a deep dept of gratitude to Mr. Anil Kumar Sharma, Section Officer (Chief Warden Office), Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla-5 for providing valuable guidance during the course.

Last but not the least, I express my special thanks to Sh. Gian Thakur, who have been a great help in giving the final shape to this project work by typing the thesis more accurately.
