ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I with heart-felt gratitude like to use this occasion to acknowledge the following persons whose help and support gave me the required strength, spirit and enthusiasm to complete this work in time:

Dr. S. Hareendranath, Head of the Department of Commerce (Retired), Mahathma Gandhi College, Thiruvananthapuram, my most revered research supervisor, for his limitless motivation, guidance and advice without which my dream of doing this work would not have come true. I am greatly indebted to him for his timely interventions, for the interest he had shown in my work, and for being the first reader and critic of my work.

Dr. M. Sarngadharan, Professor and the former Head of the Department of Commerce, University of Kerala and the then Head of the Doctoral Committee for giving me an opportunity to take up this research programme.

Dr. K. Sasikumar, Professor and Head of the Department of Commerce, University of Kerala, for the help and co-operation he has extended to me in doing this work.

Dr. C. Ganesh, Professor, Department of Commerce, University of Kerala, for his boundless affection that he showered on me, for the timely help, encouragement and for his invaluable technical advices.

Dr. M. Manickam, Reader and Head of Department of Commerce, Bharathiar University, Coimbatore, for his kind regards and concern for me, for the research attitude that he had instilled in me, and for permitting me to avail all the necessary data for the research from the data base of Department of Commerce, Bharathiar University.
The librarian of the University Library, University of Kerala, Thiruvananthapuram, for extending help and support to do the research work, and for giving me the consent to fix library as the centre of my research.

My colleagues, friends, teachers and students of Government College Chittur, Palakkad, Government College, Kozhinjampara, Palakkad and PTM Government College Perinthalmanna, Malappuram, for they being my well wishers.

My staff in the Deputy Directorate of Collegiate Education Thrissur, for they all wish me to complete this research work.

I also like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my loving and caring family.

My beloved mother, Smt. A. Meenakshi, a nonagenarian, who has sacrificed a lot to bring me up, always wishes me doing good things.

My wife, the most affectionate, Smt. K.C. Yesoda Devi, who always thinks of my welfare, following me through thick and thin, for her good wishes to complete this research work.

My loving daughters Prasia, Praseetha and Natasha, for all their help in boosting up my morale that resulted in the completion of the work. A special mention I need about my youngest daughter Natasha for her tireless help in the processing, proof reading, and printing of the research work.

V. PANKUNNI