ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe my deep sense of appreciation and gratitude to the Indian Council for Cultural Relations, the Ministry of Human Resource Development, India and the Department of Vocational Education, the Ministry of Education, Thailand for the sponsorship under the Indo-Thai Cultural Exchange Programme.

I am also indebted to my esteemed supervisor, Prof. Lokesh Koul, Chairman and Dean, Faculty of Education and Co-ordinator, DSA Scheme (UGC), Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, for his invaluable guidance and direction provided in the completion of the study in spite of his extremely busy schedule of academic and administrative engagements in the university without which I would not have been able to accomplish this research work.

It also gives me immense pleasure to place on record my deep sense of gratitude to all the members, Faculty of Education, Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla for their academic support and advice provided to me from time to time during the conduct of this study.

I owe a debt of gratitude to my parents, Mr. Vimol and Mrs. Klai Savetapong and the members of my family for their sincere co-operation, moral support, unfailing inspiration and encouragement throughout my work.
I feel reciprocally bound not to forget to thank the staff members of the Planning Division, the Department of Vocational Education, the Ministry of Education, Thailand for their generous help and encouragement during my absence.

My thanks are also due to the officials of various agencies under the Ministry of Education, especially the Department of Vocational Education and members of the community of each educational region for extending their help in obtaining the information pertaining to the study.

Lastly, I am highly thankful to those, who helped me directly or indirectly, in my work and who will always remain unnamed. Still I hope, they will understand and accept my sincere thanks.

Shimla
Himachal Pradesh
India
1997

(Suleeporn Savetapong)