ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I, first beg to express my gratitude, appreciation and indebtedness to Almighty God for providing and guiding all the channels to work in cohesion and coordination to make this study possible.

I am highly grateful to my supervisor Dr. Zaheeruddin, Reader, Faculty of Law, Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh, for constant supervision, unceasing interest, critical suggestions and never ending encouragement. It was a pleasure working under him, which I will always cherish and longed for.

Words fail to express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Mohammad Shabbir (Dean), Prof. Iqbal Ali Khan (Chairman), Prof. Saleem Akhtar (Ex-Dean and Chairman), Prof. Qaiser Hayat (Retd. Dean and Chairman) for their keen interest, unending zeal, expert guidance, unfailing assistance and ready counsel and advice were of immense value in the completion of this work.

I will always remain indebted to my teachers, Prof. Akhlaq Ahmad, Dr. Zubair Ahmad Khan, Dr. M.Z.M. Nomani, Dr. Badar Ahmad, Dr. Waseem Ahmad, Dr. Javed Talib, Dr. Mohd. Ashraf, Dr. Shakeel Samdani, Dr. Zafar Iqbal, Dr. Shakeel Ahmad, Dr. Iqbal Hadi, Dr. Nafees Ahmad, Mr. Z. Khairuwala, Mr. Hashmat Khan, Dr. Raquib Gauhar, Dr. Ehteshamuddin, Dr. Rahamatullah, Mr. Salil Kumar, Dr. Kaleemullah, Dr. Ishrat and Dr. Tanzeem Fatima for rendering unstinting help, moral support and encouragement.

Jain, Dr. Harish Sharma and Dr. Sarat Raj Singh for their cooperation, help, valuable suggestions and criticism from time to time.
I will always remain indebted to Dr. Sanjay Upadhyaya, Fellow, V.V. Giri National Labour Institute, Noida who provided me the necessary materials required during the entire execution of the work.

I sincerely appreciate my friends Mrs. Meenu and Ms. Poonam for their moral support and encouragement during the tenure of this work. I am also thankful to my seniors, juniors and companions, specially of Ms. Tabassum, Ms. Shaista, Mr. Gaurav and others whose fraternization and affability helped me at the moments of distress and exhaustion.

I acknowledge the kind cooperation of the staff of libraries of V.V. Giri National Labour Institute, Noida, Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, Women Study Centre, Maulana Azad and Law Seminar, A.M.U., Aligarh, specially of Mr. S.M. Anwar Hussain, Rosan Khayal, Israr Rab, Sabir Ali Khan, Farhat Afzal and others for all possible services rendered to me in my present work.

I would also like to thank Mr. Shareef Khan and other Office Staffs in the Department of Law for their constant encouragements for the submission of the thesis.

It would have been impossible for me to complete this study without the help of Deputy Labour Commissioner, Assistant Labour Commissioner, Labour Enforcement Officer, General Manager, Assistant Director and other Staff of Offices of Deputy Labour Commissioner, General Manager and Assistant Director in Aligarh and Agra. I am also thankful to Social Activists, Employers and Women Workers for their cooperation and extreme patience in giving me details asked for.

I am thankful to Mr. Kafeel A. Khan, who has taken pain in typing out the work with utmost care, with in the minimum possible time.

I am greatly indebted to my father Dr. Hari Mohan Gupta, Merchant and Industrialist and sisters Dr. Jhilmil Gupta, Head, Department of Plant Pathology, R.B.S. College, Agra, Dr. Poornima Gupta, Assistant Public Prosecutor, CBI, Ghaziabad, Ms. Rimjhim Gupta, J.H.T., Department of Atomic Energy, Bhabha Atomic Research Centre, Mumbai and Ms. Neelima Gupta, Junior Executive Engineer, Airports Authority of India, New Delhi for love, care, inspiration, support and encouragement without which it would have not been possible for me to complete the thesis.

At last, I cannot stop my pen without having a great acknowledgement with tears to my beloved late mother Smt. Madhu Gupta, whose sweet remembrance was the only key source to inspire and support me at every step of my journey to complete this task successfully.
