

CONTENTS

Chapter – I	Introduction	1-33
1.1	A Glance at Decriminalization
1.2	Statement of the Problem
1.3	Limitations of Research
1.4	Objective of Study
1.5	Hypothesize of research
1.6	Characteristics of Research
1.7	Methodology
Chapter – II	Prevention of Crime and Restorative Justice System	34-97
2.1	Crime and Criminalization
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• What is the Crime?• Limits and borders of Criminalization
2.2	Prevention of Crime and Criminal Policy
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Concept of prevention• Objective of prevention• The mechanism of prevention in criminal policy• The Prevention foundations in the criminal policy• The beliefs of Penal thinkers in relation to prevention• The theory of social defence towards the prevention• Prevention policy and the United Nations• The prevention view point in the Council of Europe• Prevention programmes in America and France• Crime prevention in Iran• Scope of prevention and its discussions• Prevention strategy• De-penalization

2.3 The Restorative Justice

- Concept and foundations of restorative justice
- Emergence of restorative justice
- The theoretical framework of restorative justice
- Models of restorative justice
- The relationship between restorative justice and Criminology
- Distinguishing features of restorative justice

Chapter – III Decriminalization

98-156

3.1. Decriminalization

- The concept of decriminalization
- The necessity of decriminalization
- The aim and importance of decriminalization mechanism
- Grounds and standards of decriminalization
- Types of decriminalization
- Social defence movement

3.2 The relationship between law and morality and Decriminalization

- Mutual relationship between Law & Morality
- Domain realm of ethics in Criminal Law
- Idea of legal morality and its impact on law and ethics
- Liberalism and its impact on law and ethics

3.3 The relationship between non-penal strategies and Human right mechanism

3.4 The effects and results of inclination towards non-penal strategies

- View points in support of decriminalization
- View points against decriminalization

Chapter – IV Decriminalization in the Islam and Iranian Criminal Policy

157-250

4.1 Penal doctrine of Islam and decriminalization

- Devine legislation of commandments
- Categories of commandments in Islam
- Realm of criminal law and criminalization in Islam

4.2 Concept of Crime in the Religion and Punishment

- Elements of Crime
- Punishment in Islam
- Legal nature of punishments and its categories

4.3 Decriminalization and de-penalization

- Decriminalization in Islam
- Decriminalization and de-penalization in the criminal conduct of the prophet of Allah
- First Caliph
- Second Caliph
- Imam Ali
- Method of the decriminalization

4.4 Decriminalization in the Iranian Criminal Policy

- History of Criminalization in Iran
- Background of decriminalization in Iran
- Mechanism of de-penalization
- Necessity of decriminalization

Chapter – V A Comparative Study

251-397

5.1 Decriminalization of drugs

- Movement for Decriminalization
- Decriminalization of Crimes involving drugs
- The Concept of drugs, classification and its types

5.2 The relationship between drugs and crime

- Addiction and its impacts on criminality
- Factors of Addiction
- The impact of addiction on criminality
- The historical record of consumption and smuggling of narcotic drugs
- The global industry of drugs trafficking, foundations of belief in decriminalization of narcotic drugs in West

5.3 Decriminalization of Drugs in the European Union, U.S.A., Iran and Islam

- The criminal policy of Europe :
 - Germany
 - Italy
 - Austria
 - Spain
 - England
 - Belgium
 - Portugal
 - Denmark
 - Sweden
 - France
 - Ireland
- The criminal policy of U.S.A and Latin America
- The criminal policy of Iran
 - Iran
 - Pre-Islamic Revolution canons
 - Post-Islamic Revolution canons
 - Different attitudes
- The criminal policy of Islam
 - Hanafi
 - Shafei

- Hanbali
- Maleki
- Recent sunni scholars
- Shiah esna ashari scholars
- Resent Shia scholars

5.4 The criminal policies in the field of :

- Decriminalization of Abortion
- Decriminalization of Suicide
- Decriminalization of Alcohol
- Decriminalization of Prostitution and Homosexuality

Chapter – VI	Conclusion & Suggestions	398-416
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	419-459