Acknowledgement

The Researcher is grateful and indebted to so many persons, institutions and organisations for the completion of this study. It is my earnest desire to mention about at least a few of them.

I am extremely grateful to Dr. S.N. Rath, D.Litt., Professor and former Head of the Department, Political Science, Utkal University, my teacher, guide and supervisor for his most able guidance and ungrudging assistance for my present endeavour.

I am also obliged to Dr. (Mrs.) Sharada Rath, Professor, Political Science, Utkal University; and Dr. Amareswar Mishra, Senior Lecturer, Political Science, Utkal University for their help, critical suggestions and encouragement in improving the drafts of the present dissertation.

In the completion of this research work, the researcher has received help and inspiration from a good number of well wishers. He remembers thankfully all the members of teaching and non-teaching staff, Department of Political Science, Utkal University; Dr. Ramesh Ch. Mohapatra, Department of Labour Welfare and Personnel Management; Dr. K.B. Das, Department of Analytical and Applied Economics; Dr. Anup K. Dash, Department of Sociology, Maj. D.K. Nanda, Director, College Development Council; Prof. Chandra Mohan Mishra, Director, Students' Welfare; staff members of D.S.W. Section; staff members of the Research (Registration) section; and, staff members of Research (Examination) section, Utkal University.

I am obliged to the Governing Body, Principal, Members of teaching and non-teaching staff of Anandapur College, Anandapur, Keonjhar District; the Director, Higher Education, Orissa; Prof. Sarat Kumar Mohanty, Deputy Director; Prof. G.K. Padhi, Dy. Director; staff members of the Directorate of Higher Education; the Department of Education and Youth Services, Govt. of Orissa; Sri Ramakant Rath, I.A.S., Sri Pyari Mohan Mohapatra, I.A.S., Sri Surya Narayan Mohapatra, Joint Secretary, E & Y.S. Department, Government of Orissa for their help in grant of study leave to the researcher.

The researcher is grateful to several political and trade union leaders for enlightening him on many problems of trade unionism. Among them mention may be made of Mr. Rabi Roy, Speaker, Lok Sabha, Sri Man Mohan Mishra, Dr. Prasanna Kumar Patsani, Prof. B.N. Patra, Sri Surendranath Dwivedy, Sri Rajkishore Samantrai, Sri Nityananda Mishra, Sri Raj Ballabh Mishra and Sri Bidyadhar Barik and all trade union leaders of Rourkela; Dr. Bhabagrahi Mishra, Former Director, Asian Workers' Development Institute, Rourkela; and Prof. Abani Kumar Baral, Vice-President, All India Federation of University and College Teachers' Organisations.

My special thanks are due to the authorities and members of staff of the following libraries and institutions;
Parija Library, Utkal University; H.K. Mahatab State Library, Bhubaneswar; Asian Workers' Development Institute Rourkela; Personnel and Administration Departments, Rourkela Steel Plant; the National Library, Calcutta; the American Studies Research Centre, Hyderabad, the Indian Council for Social Science Research, Hyderabad Centre; the Institute of Public Enterprises, Hyderabad; the Osmania University Library, Hyderabad; the Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi; Ministry of Labour, Govt. of India, New Delhi; and the National Council of Educational Research and Training, New Delhi.

My sincere thanks are due to Sri Gorachand Misra, Editor, Prajatantra Pratibha for giving me access to Prajatantra Library for collection of relevant materials.

During the course of my research work I was constantly inspired by my relations and friends who include Prof. Basudev Pathi, M.A., O.E.S., my father; Smt. Pratibha Devi, my mother; Sri Sadasib Mishra, Advocate, my father-in-law; Sri Subhas Chandra Mishra and Sri Srirama Chandra Mishra, my friends; and, Smt. Madhusmita Mishra, M.A., M.Phil (Pol. Science), my wife, and numerous relations; I am indebted to all of them.

I am also grateful to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi and the Utkal University, Bhubaneswar for allowing me to conduct research as a U.G.C. Junior Research Fellow on my qualifying the All-India UGC - NET.
Last but not the least, Sri Laxmidhar Barik deserves hearty thanks for neat and timely typing out of the entire thesis.

Srinibas Pathi
Srinibas Pathi.