TABLE OF CONTENTS
Table of contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Pages</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Chapter 1

Introduction
Madhusudan Das and the then
Socio-economic and political Orissa 14-44
1.1 A short peep into his life and performance
1.2 Foreign misrule
1.3 Territorial truncation and the effects on Oriyas
1.4 Early British administration
1.5 Deplorable plight of the land owner
1.6 Depreciation of cowry currency
1.7 Salt monopoly
1.8 Corruption in bureaucracy
1.9 Judiciary stuck in corruption
1.10 Police steeped in corruption and misrule
1.11 Native Oriyas deprived of employment
1.12 Interference in Jagannath temple
1.13 Humiliation of the raja of Khurdha
1.14 Exacerbating the crisis
1.15 Paik rebellion
1.16 Disastrous consequences
1.17 Siphoning of the resources to the British treasury
1.18 Disadvantages
1.19 Decline in maritime trade
1.20 Indifferent and ineffective administration
1.21 Lack of communication between ruled and the ruler
1.22 Lack of education and political consciousness aggravating the crisis
1.23 Agriculture in dire negligence and peasants in deep poverty
1.24 British administration unsympathetic to 1866 catastrophe
1.25 Orissa: A mere geographical expression

Chapter 2

Madhusudan Das and His Contribution to Oriya Nationalism 45-77

2.1 Adoption of Oriya as official language
2.2 Shortages of Oriya text books: An obstacle to spread of Oriya language
2.3 Replacement of Oriya by Bengali
2.4 Perpetuation of Bengali administration through its language
2.5 Monopolization of jobs by Bengali
2.6 Anti Oriya campaign
2.7 Organized protests against Bengali move
2.8 Acceptance of Oriya as a separate language
2.9 Associations
2.10 Promotion of Anti-Oriya Debating Club
2.11 Cuttack: The Hub of all Organizations
2.12 Utkal Sabha: Articulating Oriyan Cause
2.13 Orissa Association fighting for specific problems of Orissa
2.14 The demand for amalgamation of Oriya speaking tracts
2.15 Lieutenant Governor's rejection of Oriya amalgamation
2.16 Language agitation in Sambalpur
2.17 British policy of replacing Oriya by Hindi
2.18 Public protest against the language policy of the Government
2.19 Protest movement in Cuttack against imposition of Hindi
2.20 Madhusudan Das’s efforts to convince Britishers
2.21 Reconsidering the language policy
2.22 Non-acceptability of Hindi among the people
2.23 Restoring Oriya as the official language in Sambalpur
2.24 Joining of Sambalpur with Orissa
2.25 Amalgamation of Orissa as a homogenous unit in the Bengal Presidency
2.26 Creation of Orissa division
2.27 Language agitation in Ganjam
2.28 Dominance of Telugus putting Oriyas in jeopardy
2.29 Oriya movement
2.30 Madhusudan’s role in inspiring the people for amalgamation
2.31 Separating Ganjam and other Oriya speaking tracts from Madras presidency
2.32 Governor of Madras’ opposition to the move

Chapter 3
Madhusudan Das and His pivotal role in uniting Orissa 78-112
3.1 Futility of solving Oriya problems through national forum
3.2 Need for provincial alternative
3.3 Its genesis and British government’s direction to officials not to attend
3.4 British Government reconsidered its direction
3.5 Inaugural session with new vision
3.6 Emphasis on trade, commerce and economic prosperity
3.7 Constitution
3.8 Resolutions and achievements
3.9 Issues before the utkal union conference
3.10 Economic concerns
3.11 Launching of weekly paper “The Oriya”
3.12 Achievement of Madhusudan Das as leader of Utkal Union Conference
3.13 Need for separate administration for Orissa
3.14 Policy of Moderate Madhusudan
3.15 The decline
3.16 Young nationalists at Satyabadi: A new Political force
3.17 Achievements of Utkal Union Conference: A Critique
3.18 Setback to the cause of moderation
3.19 Political discomfiture of Madhusudan Das
3.20 The role of Madhusudan's literature in the formation of new Orissa
3.21 Uncrowned king of Orissa
3.22 Formation of Oriya Sabha to guard the interests of Orissa
3.23 Madhusudan put emphasis on unity between words and deeds
3.24 Madhusudan: A true Oriya in his thoughts and aspirations
3.25 Madhusudan adoring Utkal Mata
3.26 Champion of Orissan Renaissance
3.27 Madhusudan's agony and disenchantment with the inactivity of his fellows

Chapter 4
Madhusudan Das and National Movement

4.1 National Congress Party's proposal to reconstitute provinces on linguistic homogeneity
4.2 Establishment of training camps in Orissa
4.3 Gandhi's impact on young generations
4.4 Formation of Swaraj Sevak Sangha
4.5 Non-Cooperation Movement in Sambalpur
4.6 Formation of Provincial working committee
4.7 Non-Cooperation movement gathering momentum in Orissa
4.8 Cancellation of securities for papers for their seditious writings
4.9 Counter propaganda by the British government through Indian agencies
4.10 Drastic measures by the British government to control non-cooperation movement
4.11 Non-Cooperation movement in Orissa in full momentum
4.12 The rise of kanika
4.13 Peasant movement in Kanika against hiking of land revenues
4.14 End of Non-cooperation
4.15 Madhusudan's entry into Congress: A turning point
4.16 Rift among nationalists with emergence of several rival groups
4.17 Feud between moderate and ultra-nationalists
4.18 Utkal provincial Congress Committee to boycott Simon Commission
4.19 Lull before the storm
4.20 The Civil Disobedience movement
4.21 Civil Disobedience movement in Orissa
4.22 Importance of salt to Orissa's economy
4.23 Utkal Union Conference's insistence on revival of salt industry
4.24 Madhusudan Das taking up the mantle of salt movement
4.25 Salt movement in various parts of Orissa
4.26 Salt movement in Inchudi
4.27 Spread of fire of salt movement to other parts of the state
4.28 Salt movement in Ganjam
4.29 British Government's policy of reprisal
4.30 Gandhi-Irwin pact and its Impact on the movement
4.31 Slackening of Congress activities in Orissa
4.32 Madhusudan Das as a nationalist
4.33 Champion of Swadeshi movement in Orissa
4.35 Confining to Oriya movement
4.36 Not anti Congress and pro British 4.37 Removing the anti Indian impressions
4.38 Oriya nationalism not opposed to Indian nationalism
4.39 Indian National Congress apathetic to Oriyan cause 4.40 Madhusudan Das not anti Congress and anti national 4.41 Chief architect of modern Orissa
4.42 Indian renaissance and its impact
4.43 Avowed determination to modernize Orissa
4.44 Madhusudan, the Leader
Chapter 5
Madhusudan Das as the Legislator

5.1 Resolution on matters of public interest
5.2 Orissa Tenancy Bill, 1911
5.3 Panchayat system and decentralization of power
5.4 Separate High Court for Bihar and Orissa
5.5 Madhusudan on local self government
5.6 Madhusudan on protection of interests of raiyats
5.7 Resolution to express loyalty to the British government in the European war
5.8 Bihar and Orissa Decentralization Bill 1915
5.9 Non-applicability of Bengal land act to Orissa
5.10 Resolution regarding separation of judicial and executive functions
5.11 Resolution regarding recommendation of Decentralization Commission with regard to Municipalities
5.12 Resolution regarding election of presidents of rural boards
5.13 Resolution: election of members of local district boards
5.14 Resolution: Measures against noncooperationists
5.15 Madhusudan on responsibility of local local self government
5.16 Resolution: amalgamation of the Oriya speaking tracts
5.17 Representation of depressed classes

5.18 Economic ideas
5.19 Resolution regarding the growth and development of industries in India 5.20 Improvement in veterinary
5.21 Improvement of railways in Orissa
5.22 Introduction of division of labour and promotion of interests of artisans 5.23 Resolution replacing custom duty on sugar imported from foreign countries

5.24 Social ideas
5.25 Resolution regarding amelioration of depressed classes
5.26 provision for spread of universal education
5.27 concern for agriculture
5.28 promotion of elementary education
5.29 Sanitation vrs education
5.30 Foreign countries should serve the home country
5.31 Resolution regarding Indian vernacular in secondary schools
5.32 Resolution regarding increase of allotment for non recurring grants for education and sanitation
5.33 Demand for law classes
5.34 Resolution on Female education
5.35 Franchise for women
5.36 Amendment of legal practitioners act of 1879
5.37 Protection of Muhammadan pilgrim bill
5.38 Resolution recommending trained dais for rural dispensaries
5.39 Coexistence of medical department and ancient system of medicine

Chapter 6
Economic and Social ideas of Madhusudan Das

6.1 Concern for development of Orissa
6.2 Mission to integrate Orissa with mainstream economy of India 6.3 Mission to abolish zamindari
6.4 Shaping of socio-economic polity
6.5 Agent of socio-economic change
6.6 Harbinger of industrial development
6.7 Emphasis on quality
6.8 Filigree industry in Cuttack
6.9 An exemplary ideal for others
6.10 Spreading the Orissan glory in Art to the outside world
6.11 Sir John Woodburn's visit to Orissa aart wares
6.12 Press appreciation
6.13 No bounds to his service to the poor
6.14 Beacon of modern Orissa
6.15 Insolvency: A testimony to Madhusudan Das's dedication to industrialization
Chapter 7
Leadership of Madhusudan Das:
A Study in Profile and Performance

7.1 Not narrow provincialist
7.2 Pioneer of planned economic growth
7.3 Separation of politics from power and pelf of offices
7.4 Multidimensional personality
7.5 The legislator
7.6 Madhusudan as Minister
7.7 The champion of underdogs
7.8 Exponent of Swadeshi
7.9 An ideal theoretician in industry
7.10 Concerned with economic upliftment of peasants
7.11 Bankrupt Madhusudan
7.12 The last breath
7.13 The epilogue
7.14 For a fair deal for Orissa peasants
7.15 Defender of lost causes

Bibliography

239-276
277-284