ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Acknowledging a dissertation work represents a silhouette of magnanimity and help rendered by our family and friends. I take this pleasant and unique opportunity to thank all those people who have encouraged me right from the conception of this work till its present form.

A student without Guide is like boat without sailor that has no direction and can never reach to its ultimate goal. So, for being a quality director for me I would like to express my most humble gratitude to my guide Dr. V. A. Kothiwale MD Ph.D., Professor, Department of Medicine, K.L.E. University’s Jawaharlal Nehru Medical College, Belagavi for his timely suggestions, meticulous guidance and encouragement; thereby moulding and exploring me in a right manner and whose unstinted guidance and constant encouragement was there all the way in successful completion of this work.

With great privilege, I take the opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks to Hon’ble Chancellor KLE University, Dr. Prabhakar B. Kore MP, Chairman KLE Society, Belagavi for his encouragement and providing the opportunity to reach the goal.

I am grateful to Hon’ble Vice-Chancellor, KLE University Dr. (Prof.) C. K. Kokate, Belagavi, for his timely motivation and inspiration throughout the course.

I am deeply indebted to Dr. V. D. Patil Registrar, KLE University, Belagavi, for his support and encouragement throughout the course.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Sanjiv Kumar Principal, Institute of physiotherapy, Belagavi, for his constant support, motivation and encouragement throughout the study.
I immensely thank to Dr. Shivalingappa B. Javali, Asso. Prof. and Statistician, USM-KLE International Medical Programme, Belagavi for his kind help and co-operation in the statistical analysis of this study.

With great respect, I extend my special thanks and gratitude to all the Colleagues and Staff for all the help and advice rendered to me during my study period.

I am extremely thankful to my Friends for their kind understanding and support during the course of my study.

It would be unfair of me if I fail to thank all the Participants in this study without whom this study would have been impossible.

I convey special thanks to my Parents for their constant support, blessings and prayers without which this work would not have been completed successfully.

Further I extend my thanks to all the Contributors, whose names I have not mentioned, but though they all deserve my gratitude.

This task would not have been completed without the grace of ALMIGHTY the most beneficent and most merciful, the best healer.

MR. GANESH B. R.
