

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The author wishes to record his deep sense of gratitude to Dr.P.G.Kurup, Reader in Physical Oceanography, Department of Marine Sciences, University of Cochin, for suggesting the research problem and for guidance and constant encouragement. He is also grateful for his valuable advice and help in preparation of the manuscript and for suggesting improvements.

He is grateful to Prof.(Dr.) C.V.Kurian, Emeritus Scientist, former Head of the Department of Marine Sciences for encouragement. He is thankful to his colleagues for help and cooperation. He also likes to record his thanks to the Head of the Department of Marine Sciences and University of Cochin for providing necessary facilities.

The help rendered by Sri K.V.Chandran, Senior Grade Typist/Stenographer, University of Cochin, in typing the thesis is gratefully acknowledged.
