COMPENSATION TO VICTIMS OF CRIME AND REHABILITATION MEASURES IN INDIA

CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Acknowledgement</th>
<th>i-ii</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>iii-vii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Table of Cases</td>
<td>viii-xii</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER ONE: EVOLUTION OF VICTIMOLOGY 1-5

I. Victim Orientation 1-2
II. United Nations Declaration of Basic Principles of Justice for Victims of Crime 2-3
III. World Society of victimology. 3
IV. Victim Offender Reconciliation Programme 3-5

CHAPTER TWO: VICTIMIZATION: EFFECTS OF CRIME 6-20

I. Who is victim? 6-8
II. Kinds of victims. 8-15
III. Effects of crime. 15-20
IV. Grievances and Problems of Victims 20

CHAPTER THREE: COMPENSATION TO VICTIMS OF CRIME ANALYTICAL VIEW 21-44

I. Meaning of Compensation 21-22
II. Compensation and Restitution 22
III. Historical Development of Compensation Law. 23-24
IV. Eligibility for Compensation. 24-25
V. Computation of Compensation 25-27
VI. Assistance to victims. 27-30
CHAPTER FOUR: COMPENSATION TO VICTIMS

STATUTORY PROVISIONS IN INDIA 45-93

I. Statutory mechanism for award of compensation to the victims of crimes in India 48-75
   A) Under the criminal procedure code, 1973 (2 of 1974) 48-57
   B) Section 5 of probation of offenders act, 1958. 57-61
   C) Section 15-a of police act, 1861. 61-63
   D) Under the motor vehicle act, 1988 63-67
   E) The scheduled castes & scheduled tribes (prevention of atrocities) act, 1989. 67-73
   F) Scheme of compensation to the victims of Violence by left wing extremists 73-74
   G) Payment of compensation recommended By the Hon’ble Supreme Court in respect to convicts in the prisons. 74
   H) Scheme of compensation to the victims of Communal violence 74-76
   I) Award of compensation under other acts. 76
   II. Indian Penal Code and Compensation. 76
   III. Law Commission of India, 42nd Report. 77-79
   I. Payment of Compensation. 80-81
   II. Case where Compensation has been awarded. 81-93
CHAPTER FIVE: RESTITUTIVE JUSTICE TO VICTIMS: 94-112
I. Restitution. 94-95
II. Emerging trends & Legislative Paradigms. 95
A. Compensation as an “additional punishment” under IPC. 96-98
B. Comprehensive Statutory & State Obligatory Compensatory Scheme 98-101
C. Victims (Criminal Injuries) Right to Assistance Bill, 1996 - NLSUI Bill. 101-106
D. Malimath Committee Report: Victim Participation. 106-107
III. Rational of Restitution & Compensation. 107-108
IV. Victim's Rights And Criminal Justice Reforms 108-112

CHAPTER SIX: COMPENSATION TO VICTIMS-
A HUMAN RIGHTS APPROACH. 113-135
I. Evolution of Concept of Human Rights 113-115
II. Declaration of Basic Principles of Justice for Victims. 115-116
III. Human Rights and Compensation to Victims 116-122
IV. Article 32 and Violation of Human Rights 122-135

CHAPTER SEVEN: VICTIM ASSISTANCE AND
COMPENSATION SCHEMES IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES 136-185
I. Compensation Programme in England. 137-140
II. Compensation Programme in U.S.A. 140-141
III. Compensation Programme in France 142
IV. Compensation Schemes in other European Countries. 142-185

CHAPTER EIGHT: CRIMINAL VICTIMIZATION OF
WOMEN AND THEIR REHABILITATION MEASURES. 186-203
I. Position of Women 186-187
II. Victimization of Women on Socio-Legal Aspects. 187-189
III. Statutory Measures. 190
CHAPTER NINE: PLEA BARGAINING - A PRACTICAL SOLUTION AND THE VICTIMS OF CRIME

I. The origin and rise of plea – bargaining
II. Recommendations by the Law Commission of India
   A. Supporters Of Plea Bargaining
   B. Opponents Of Plea Bargaining.

CHAPTER TEN: CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

BIBLIOGRAPHY