ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Diligence and dedication of a student alone cannot help in accomplishing the task of Thesis writing. One also needs scientific and sincere guidance and moral support from an intelligent experienced and erudite man. In this respect, Professor(Dr.) RANBIR SINGH, Professor of Law, Faculty of Law, M.D.University, Rohtak, my supervisor for this research work, has proved to be a perfect guide. I am grateful to the University which was kind enough to appoint Dr.Ranbir Singh as my supervisor.

He gave me full liberty for my intellectual exercise and was ready to interfere with my work only when I tended to go astray. I enjoyed the advantage of his critical judgment, vast knowledge and advice on each and every aspect of the present research. It has been in deed a pleasure to work under his supervision and guidance. At every step of the work, he stimulated thought provoking discussion on the subject. I really lack words to express my deep sense of gratitude to him. Without his sincere and able guidance this work could not have been in the present form as it has now been done.

I wish to record my deep sense of gratitude and appreciation to the Hon'ble Judges of the Supreme Court of India and the Members of Parliament and State Legislatures.
I will be failing in my duties if at the same time, I don't acknowledge my gratitude for the kind thoughts of Professor (Dr.) C.P. Sheoran, Dean and Head of Department, Faculty of Law, M.D. University, who provided fruitful suggestions for the accomplishing of this work.

I have no words in my dictionary to express my sincere thanks to Shri H.R. Bhardwaj, M.P., former Union Minister for Law, Justice and Company Affairs and Sh. S. S. Surjewala M.P. for encouraging and providing me fruitful suggestions for accomplishing this research work.

I record my deepest sense of indebtedness for the kind thoughts of my well wishers and friends e.g., Shri Altaf Ahmed Additional Solicitor General for India, Shri D.D. Thakur, Shri S.S. Ray, Shri Jagdeep Dhankhar M.L.A., Shri D.V. Sehgal, Sh. B. S. Malik, Senior Advocates, Supreme Court of India, Mr. Justice P.N. Nag (Retd) President, H.P. Court Punjab and Haryana, Sh.Jagmeet Singh Brar Ex.M.P., Shri Jaya Ram Minister for Housing, Govt. of Andhra Pradesh for providing me fruitful suggestions for accomplishing this task.

I wish to record my deep sense of gratitude and appreciation to the Staff of the: Library, Faculty of Law, M.D.University Rohtak: Library of the Indian Law Institute; Supreme Court Judges' Library; R.K.Garg Research Library and Supreme Court Bar Library, Parliament Library and Reference, Research, Documentation and Information Service (LARRDIS), Library, Law Faculty, University of Delhi,Official Languages Wing Library, Ministry of Law and Justice, Government of India, Central Reference Library,Library of the Institute of Constitutional and Parliamentary studies, Rafi Marg, New Delhi, for their assistance and providing study material during the work on this thesis.

I must confess that my wife, Kanta has contributed a lot right from very beginning. She had been persistently encouraging and supporting me for the completion of this task. I must say that my brother Dr.R.K.Chauhan, my sister-in-law and nephew, Deepak and niece, Suman had been a constant source of inspiration for accomplishing the present research work.

I express my profound appreciation to all the teachers and Professors of Law Department, M.D.
University Rohtak for their kind guidance. I am happy to note that entire Faculty of law is a well knitted where everyone have an attitude and culture of a well knit family to help the students. Dr. K.P.S. Mahlwar, Ms. Suman Lata, Dr. J.L. Kaul, Readers in law, Faculty of Law, M.D.U. who not only encouraged me but also rendered acknowledgeable help and guidance and provided me fruitful suggestions for accomplishing this task.

I cannot forget to make a mention about Shri P.S. Rawat @ Danny who have very meticulously and artistically typed the whole manuscript and has enabled me to complete my research work in the present form.
