ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The researcher expresses her sincere gratitude to her Supervisor and teacher, Dr. M.S. Sonar, Professor and Head, Department of Education, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, for his advice, valuable guidance and sustained motivation, culminating in the present research work. His keen interest, constant encouragement, painstaking corrections and useful suggestions have eliminated some of the gross angularities of this research endeavour. This research work would never have been completed without his cautious, inspirations and result oriented imagination.

The investigator is indebted to her colleagues Dr. R.B. Dewasthalee, Dr. A.N. Joshi, Mrs. S.M. Sreedhar and Dr. M.S. Padmini for their timely help, suggestions and encouragement. The researcher owes a debt of gratitude to Dr. A.N. Joshi who very kindly helped with the statistical interpretations and report writing. His illuminating guidance and cooperation have been a source of inspiration and enlightenment to the researcher.

Thanks are due to Dr. S.B. Gogate, Indian Institute of Education, Pune, who gave the researcher the initial direction and encouragement essential for a good start to the research. He also introduced the researcher to Shri A.G. Sule (Consultant Statistician) who gave his valuable suggestions in the analysis.
The investigator expresses her sincere gratitude to Dr. M.B. Buch, Editor, Survey of Research in Education, Paroda and Dr. R. Govinda, CASE, Paroda for going out of their way to provide the research worker extracts of latest researches essential for reviewing related literature.

The investigator thanks the Principals and Teaching staff of the Junior Colleges and Higher Secondary Schools under study, for their co-operation in providing facilities to collect the relevant data with ease. She is grateful to the Heads of the Departments of Psychology and Education, Teaching staff and the Adolescents who participated as subjects in this investigation.

Her thanks are directed to the Director and members of Shahu Institute, Kolhapur, especially Miss Bendre for undertaking compilation work and analyzing the data so efficiently and satisfactorily. Dr. R.V. Kulkarni, Shahu Institute, Kolhapur very painstakingly gave statistical guidance for computation of the data. The researcher thanks him for all the help and direction.

The investigator is thankful to Shri Kawade who has labouriously and painstakingly undertaken the efficient typing of the thesis on the PCL. Shri Sanjay Sonar and Dr. Sameer Sonar have patiently guided the researcher in the print out of her thesis. Acknowledging printing errors this being a maiden effort the researcher expresses her sincere thanks to both of them.
The researcher owes a debt of gratitude to the authorities of the Shivaji University, Kolhapur for providing her an opportunity to work as a researcher.

Last but not the least, she affectionately acknowledges her indebtedness to her grandfather Raosaheb Shri Shridharrao S. Shirke, her parents Smt. Sarojini and Col. Narayan P.P. Thorat, her paternal uncle and aunty Lt.Gen. and Smt. Leela S. Thorat, her father-in-law Shri Shankarrao K. Yeole and especially her husband Col. Mahendra S. Yeole - not forgetting her daughter Archana and son Ajit for providing her constant assistance, cooperation, encouragement and enthusiasm without which the completion of the present work would not have been possible.
