ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is not a routine customary gesture, but a genuine heartfelt thanks and gratitude, that I am feeling today for my guides, co-guides, elders, seniors, juniors, friends and critics alike, because if not for them, this slow and time consuming effort would not have seen the light of the day.

My heart throbs with respect and gratitude for my guide Prof. Ramesh Kumar, MD, DCH, Head of the department of Paediatrics, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi whose gem of a personality has put life and breath into my humble effort. His strict disciplinarian approach, helpful criticism and deep understanding nature guided me throughout my endeavour.

Without any stringe attatched it can be said with sureness that the timely completion of this work is not wholly but completely due to keen personalized interest precise guidance and step by step help received from you Sir.

I am deeply greatful to Prof. Rama Mitra, MS,
DGO, Head of the department of Obstetrics and Gynaecology, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi, my co-guide and a great source of help at all stages of my work. She shall always remain in my memory as a very gracful,charming and helpful person.

I shall fail in my humble duty if I do not remember at this juncture, the most sweet natured and charming personality of our department Dr.(Mrs.) Sheila Longia, Associate Professor  Her unfathomed knowledge fundamentalistic approach and affectionate nature shall always find a reflection in my work.

My head bows with respect to Dr. Anil Kaushik, MD, Assistant Professor, Department of Paediatrics, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi whose lovely, enthusiastic nature, constructive criticism and active guidance have been a constant source of inspiration to me.

I feel great gratitude for Dr. R.S. Sethi, MD, DCH, Assistant Professor, Department of Pediatrics, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi whose deep and precise knowledge, zeal and dynamic, ever helping nature, guided me through the length and breadth of my work.

I humbly bow my head to my parents. It is their love and sacrifices that I am where I stand today.

I acknowledge the sweet loving and understanding nature of my wife Rama Priyadarshini who was a constant companion and morale booster throughout my humble endeavour.

My personal thank to all my friends and critics, who showed me my faults as well as encouraged me to modify them timely. My special thanks to Dr. P.P. Gupta, Resident in Pediatrics for his help in the completion of this work.

I would also like to thank Mr. Phool Chandra Sachan whose typewriter gave the final shape to this work.

In the end, the small innocent children without whom this effort would not even have started.
