ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I owe my sincere gratitude to God Almighty who accomplished and blessed me with his immense presence throughout this study.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr. E. Raja Justes, Professor, M.B.A (Finance), Department of Management Studies, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli for his enduring patience, valuable inputs, constant support and instilling confidence from the inception to the completion of the study. He helped to reduce my apprehension, cleared all my doubts and guided me from the depths of his knowledge. I was privileged to do the research work under the tutelage of a great teacher like Dr. E. Raja Justes, without whom, this study would not have been possible.

A very personal note of gratitude to Dr. C. Thilakam, Professor and Head, Department of Commerce and Research Centre, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tirunelveli and Dr. K. Maran, Professor & Director, Sri Sai Ram Institute of Management Studies, Sri Sai Ram Engineering College, Chennai for their support during the entire course of study.

I would like to thank Dr. Muthu Rathinam for his expert statistical guidance and timely consultation in statistical analysis that I received during the study.

Thanks go to all who provided the logistic support in bringing out the final copy. A word of commendation to my fellow Ph.D scholars supported me throughout the Ph.D programme. I extend my heartfelt thanks to my dear ones, friends and well wishers for their constant encouragement and support.

Grateful acknowledgements to my loving parents, Mr. M. Sree Nathan and Mrs. R. Parameswari for being the support and source of inspiration and I express my deepest gratitude towards my husband, Mr. P. Villalan for his constant support and encouragement during my study period.

My special thanks go to Mr. Kumar and his team from College Xerox, Vellore for the computer assistance, which helped me to bring out this thesis.

I acknowledge my indebtedness to all the respondents who were the participants of the study.

Kayalvizhi S.