

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I thank Lord Sri Paramakalyani , the source of knowledge who guided me in all respect to bring out this project report in the form of a research thesis successfully.

I deeply express my profound and heartfelt thanks to my guide Dr.P.Ramanathan, ( Sri Paramakalyani College, Alwarkurichi ) for his meritorious supervision and scholarly council during the entire period of my work.

I am greatly indebted to my co-guide, Dr. C.K. Mahadevan ( Reader the Physics, S.T. Hindu College, Nagercoil ) for his valuable guidance, erudite suggestions, timely correction, lucid explanations and the lessons of patience and perseverance that I learnt from him.

I am grateful to the Principal, Head and other faculty members of Physics Department and the Management of Sri Paramakalyani College, Alwarkurichi for their encouragement and support throughout this work.

I am thankful to the Management, Principal and Head of Physics Department of S.T. Hindu College for extending the facilities to me to carry out the research work. Also, I thank the University Grants Commission for the FDP award for two years.

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to all the faculty members of the Department of Physics and all the research scholars of the Physics Research Centre of S.T. Hindu College, Nagercoil. I specially thank Mr. R. Sakthi Sudar Saravanan ( Research Scholar in Physics) and Mr. K. Natesan ( Research Scholar in Chemistry) of S.T. Hindu College for their timely help in doing my research work.

With great pleasure and gratitude I take this opportunity to express my acknowledgement for the service rendered by the entire Department of Nuclear Physics, University of Madras for providing timely help during the course of my research work. Also my sincere thanks to the Heads of SSCU, I. I. Sc., Bangalore and SAIF, I. I. T. Madras, Chennai for their constant support in the characterization studies.

I take this golden opportunity to thank Dr. M. Palanichamy ( Professor of Chemistry, Anna University, Chennai ) and Dr. S.V. Bhatt (Professor of Physics, I. I. Sc., Bangalore) for their support and presence in all the way through my research. Really I have learnt something special in addition to the research help extended by Mr. Paul Joseph, Mr. Ujjal Goutham, Mr. Padma Prasad and Mr. Indraneel, the very young not merely the scientists of

University of Madras, Chennai, I. I. Sc., Bangalore and I.I.T. Madras, Chennai.

I am very happy to express my heart felt and sincere thanks to my parents, my wife and my son for their constant encouragement, support and co-operation during the period of this work. My other family members, teachers and friends who have been behind the advancement in my studies and personal life are acknowledged.

Finally, I express my gratitude to all who have encouraged and supported me in the completion of the research work and thesis preparation.
