Acknowledgements

It is my proud privilege to express a deep sense of gratitude to all the people who have given their valuable suggestions, continuous encouragement and unstinted cooperation in the preparation of this thesis. I wish to acknowledge the help extended to me by different individuals and institutions.

I am extremely grateful to my Research Guide, Dr. P. S. Yadapadithaya, Professor & Chairman, Department of Post Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce, and Finance Officer, Mangalore University for his gracious help and encouragement throughout the course of my research. Without his generous guidance, constructive suggestions and scholarly comments, this thesis could not have been written. Working with him has been a rare and privileged experience for me.

I also want to thank Prof. A. Raghurama and all the other members of the faculty and non-teaching staff of the Department of Post Graduate Studies and Research in Commerce, Mangalore University, for their encouragement and moral support.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to the authorities of Mangalore University for helping me pursue my doctoral study.

Many people have helped me during my case study period. I would like to place some names on record; Mr. Shamba Shetty, G.M. KSRITC; Mr. Ramesh Rai from Bangalore; Dr. Naresh Rai; my nephews - Karthik Rai of IBM, Adarsh Rai of Prestige group and Sathyajeeth Shetty of Target - all from Bangalore; my cousin Mr. Ajith Kumar Rai, M.D. of Suprajit Engineering Ltd., Bangalore. I am specially indebted to my cousin Dr. Arathi J. Shetty of Christian Union College, Tumkur, for her immense help in conducting case studies in Tumkur.

My sincere thanks to all the respondents and executives of all the case study organisations.
I wish to express my thanks to the Principal of University College, Mangalore and all my colleagues for supporting me.

I am very appreciative of the valuable professional guidance given by M.S. Kptian, Assistant Professor, Department of Community Medicine, KMC, Mangalore in conducting the statistical analysis.

I am indebted to Dr. Parinitha, Reader in English, Mangalore University for reading through the thesis and correcting the language.

During the course of my research work I have made many close friends who gave me their help and support generously. To begin with – special thanks to Dr. Anuradha K, Besant Women's College, Mangalore for all the help and guidance. She was the main source of inspiration for my research work. I will always remember the timely help and support of Mrs. Veena Kumari B. K, Vice-principal of Dr. N.S.A.M.F.G. College, Nitte. Mrs. Mamatha S.M. Project Fellow, Department. of Commerce, Mangalore University and her husband Mr. Manjunath were of much help to me in my research work. I am also thankful to Mrs. Beena Dais of St. Aloysious College, Mangalore for her moral support.

Mrs. Gayathri Hegde of Microbits was instrumental in getting this thesis beautifully printed and bound. I thank her and her very efficient staff.

I am grateful to my student Ms. Malini Anchan for typing my thesis and for being there whenever I needed her help.

Finally, I express my deepest gratitude to my husband Kishore Shetty and the rest of my family who were a constant source of support and strength. But for their understanding of the demands of research and taking over many of my domestic responsibilities it would have been impossible to complete this thesis.
