Acknowledgement

It gives me immense pleasure in submitting my thesis entitled "Tourism and Economic Development: A Case Study in Goa" to Mangalore University for awarding Ph. D. degree in Economics.

First of all, I take this opportunity to express my deepest sense of gratitude to my Guide, Prof. G. V. Joshi, Chairman, Department of Studies and Research in Economics, Mangalore University, for his unstinted guidance and support in completing my research. He has been a source of inspiration and instrumental in encouraging me to write and present research papers at various national and international seminars, conferences and workshops, held in different parts of the country and publication of research articles in various journals during my tenure in the Department under F. I. P. of U. G. C. of Xth Plan. I also thank members of the Staff, both teaching and non-teaching, Research Scholars, Research Assistants of the Department and the Department of Computer Science who have helped me during the course of my research work. I take this opportunity to thank the Vice Chancellor, the Registrar and the entire administrative staff of the University for helping me in resolving various administrative difficulties whenever I encountered it.

I thank two of my former Principals, Prof. V. R. Shirgurkar, who happened to be my teacher and Prof. (Dr.) A. S. Kanade, and the present Officiating Principal Dr. R. V. Gaonkar for their encouragement and support in my research work by providing me with various facilities and also getting me the Teacher Fellowship of the U. G. C. I take this opportunity to thank U. G. C. (WRO), Pune for granting me the Teacher Fellowship in pursuing my research.

I thank Head of the Department of Economics, Dr. E. M. Travassos, and all other colleagues in the Department as well as all the members of the teaching and non-teaching staff of my college, Smt. Parvatibai Chowgule Cultural Foundation's College of Arts and Science, Margao, Goa, for their best wishes in my endeavour. I am particularly indebted to Dr. S. M. Ambli and Dr. N. N. Sawant, both Readers, Department of Geography and Prof. R. V. Patil of the Philosophy Department of my college for their help, support, comment and encouragement at various stages of my research. I am also thankful to Dr. Sanjay Gaikward of the Department of Geography and to Mr. Ulhas Gaonkar a student, for their valuable help in formatting accurate maps of my study areas in Goa. I also thank my present and former students in helping me at the time of fieldwork in Goa.

My thanks are also due to Dr. (Mrs.) S. Noronha, Head, Department of Economics, Goa University, former Principal and Chairman of College Development Council, Goa University, Prof. S. L. Sardesai, Prof. Bhaskar G. Nayak former Director, Directorate of Higher Education, Government of Goa, Dr. (Mrs.) Rekha Gaonkar, Head, Department of Economics, M. E. S. College of Commerce and Arts, Zuarinagar, Dr. Jogmohna Singh, Head, Department of Economics, Mallikarjun College, Canacona for their support and co-operation in my research.

I am extremely thankful to the entire staff of the Department of Tourism and Goa Tourism Development Corporation, particularly Late Mr. M. R. Shirodkar, Dy. Director, Department of Tourism, Government of Goa, the Goa Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Travel and Tourism Association of Goa, Director, Directorate of Industry and Mines; Dy. Director Mr. Shanbogue, Directorate of Planning, Statistics & Evaluation for their help and co-operation in providing information, required for my research. I am also thankful to the owners, managers, and workers of various hotels, lodges, restaurants; businessmen, local Panchayat members, local residents, tour operators, tourist guides, All Goa Tourist Taxi Operators Association, and above all the numerous tourists both domestic and foreign, who co-operated in providing first-hand information for my research. I shall be extremely thankful to Mr. Padma, a local tourist guide attached to a hotel in Margao for his interest in my research and helping me out of the way in collecting information from the foreign tourists.

I am extremely thankful to my College Librarian Dr. (Mrs.) M. P. Shivalli, former Goa University Librarian Dr. Konnur, Mr. Devi Prasad Rath, Asstt. Librarian, IITTM, Bhubaneswar, Dy. Librarian, IITTM, Gwalior, Asstt. Librarian, Kurukshetra University, Haryana, Librarian, Centre for Mountaineering Studies, Srinagar, Garhwal, Uttarakhand, Librarian, KITTS, Thiruvananthram, Staff of the R. B. I., Mumbai. I am extremely thankful to Dr. T. Y. Malliaha, Dy. Librarian, Mangalore University who readily helped me with all the available resources at his disposal including photocopy of important journals, study materials, research papers for enriching me in latest research in travel and tourism studies all over the world. I owe a lot to all of them because without their co-operation, my research would have been incomplete.

Many thanks are due to Prof. S. C. Bagri, Director, Centre for Mountaineering Studies, Srinagar, Garhwal, Uttarakhand, Dr. S. K. Misra, Administrator, IITTM, Bhubaneswar, Prof. Sandeep Kulasreshtha, of IITTM, Gwalior, Dr. D. S. Bharadwaj, former Head, Department of Tourism & Hotel Management, Kurukshetra University and President of All India Tourism Congress, Dr. S. P. Bansal, Head, M.T.A., Himachal Pradesh University, Shimla, Dr. K. K. Kamra, Dr. (Mrs.) Manjula Chowdhury, Dr. R. H. Taxak and Dr. Ravi Bhushan Kumar of Kurukshetra University, Dr. Lavkush Mishra, Head, Department of Tourism, Dr. B. R. Ambedkar University, Agra, Dr. Dileep M. R. of Kerala Institute of Travel and Tourism Studies, Thiruvananthpuram, Mrs. Bindu V. T., Lecturer, Department of Tourism, Avinashilingam Institute for Home Science & Higher Education for Women (Deemed University), Coimbatore and numerous friends, well wishers, fellow members of Indian Tourism Congress for their assistance, advice and help while pursuing my research.

I express my sincere thanks and gratitude to my parents, my in-laws, who are no more in this world at present but supported me in all respect during their lifetime, my brother, sisters and other close relatives and friends whose blessings and support I desperately needed and most importantly my two cute daughters, Pallabi and Sagorika who were compelled to sacrifice their parental love, care and attention for my cause. I shall remain indebted to all of them forever. Last but not the least, I express my sincere gratitude to my wife Neeta, who has been my source of inspiration, a great critic, supporter and adviser and sacrificed even her own research for my cause and I must place it on record that but for her sacrifice, my research would have remained a dream.