AKNOWLEDGEMENT

A verbal rendering of acknowledgement is considered a mundane formality by many, if not a kind of relief.

For an upasaka it becomes a part of spiritual empowerment through the recognition of the Divine Hand in play. Every moment and each movement in the scheme of happenings related to this thesis and the grooming of this researcher for it make him feel ever grateful towards the Lotus Feet in the head and in the heart, shining ever as the Light and Love of life.

CISRS, Center for Interdisciplinary Studies and Research in Sanskrit, Canara College, Mangalore opened the door of opportunity to this researcher and the Director and Guide kept the searching mind-mouse active. Thanks to Dr. G.N.Bhat.

Almost all the required reference books were available at the home library, which was developed with the blessings of the beloved parents. Thanks to them with fond memories.

But for the active co-operation of Mrs. R. Susheela, wife and Chiranjeevi R. Karunya Nidhi, son the thesis would not have been possible. Thanks, thanks. Special thanks to his diagrams.
A picture equals thousand words and it communicates what thousand words fail to convey. Sri Adiga's (DTP centre, Mulki) computer mind translated the design ideas of this researcher into visually pleasant pictures, which are used in this thesis. Thanks. Mr. & Mrs. K.S. Thammaiah (K.S.T. Computer Services, Surathkal) provided technical assistance to bring out the computer print of the entire thesis. Thanks, thanks.
