ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Credit of competition of this study, I know is not mine alone, but goes to many who have rendered their guidance and assistance directly or indirectly. I am indebted to each and every individual who helped me in many ways in the preparation of this thesis.

At the outset, I express my deep sense of gratitude to my preceptor and research guide Prof. P. PAKKEERAPPA, Chairman, Department of Business Administration, Mangalore University, Mangalagangothri, who has always been a source of constant inspiration and stimulating guidance to me in the present academic pursuits. He did instill in me the much needed confidence, particularly at times when it threatened to desert me. I remain grateful forever to my guide without whose incessant support and constructive suggestions, the present work would not have seen the light of the day.

I express my profound gratitude to the Members of Management, Principal of Veerashaiva College, Bellary for permitting me to carry on my research work. I am grateful to Faculty of Commerce & Management, Veerashiava College for their encouragement and moral support.
I owe a debt of gratitude to the authorities of Mangalore University for having given me an opportunity to pursue my doctoral study. I also wish to thank Dr. T. Mallikarjunappa, Dr. T. N. Sreedhara, Dr. Mustiary Begum and S. J. Manjunath and Office staff especially Mrs. Shailaja of the Department of Business Administration, Mangalore University, for their help and encouragement.

My sincere thanks are also due to all the respondents of various Small Scale Industries of Bellary district for their co-operation in generating the field data.

I am beholden to the Library authorities of Mangalore University, Mangalagangothri, ICSSR, Delhi, Delhi School of Economics, Delhi, FICCI, Delhi, Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi, NISIET, Hyderabad, Osmania University, Hyderabad, Karnataka University, Dharwad, for permitting me to have an access to the literature.

Prof. K. V. Prabhakar, Prof. K. Ereshi, Prof. P. B. Appa Rao, and Dr. S. Jayanna have helped me in bringing out this research work by giving me the necessary guidelines. I thank them heartily.
I remain grateful to Prof. ARUN RAO, Department of Statistics, Mangalore University for his guidance in conducting statistical analysis. I profusely thank Prof. RAVISHANKAR, Department of English, Mangalore University, Mangalagangothri, for his unflinching help in the language aspects of the thesis.

I also thank Mr. J. RAMESH, Mr. K. M. SHANMUKHA and Mr. M. MANJUNATH who extended their help in typing the manuscript of the thesis and taking the computer printouts neatly.

Last but not the least, I am extremely thankful to my wife M. JANAKI, my son M. GNAN ABHINESH for having patiently borne the brunt of domestic responsibilities, and for their co-operation, assistance and encouragement throughout my research work.
