ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In this long journey of the preparation and writing of this thesis, “EMERGING ISSUES IN KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT: A COMPARATIVE STUDY OF SELECT SOFTWARE COMPANIES IN KARNATAKA STATE”, several of my well-wishers have helped and supported me. While thanking all of them, I feel that I must refer to a few, to whom I am particularly grateful.

I thank God Almighty for the immense blessings He has bestowed upon me.

It is my great pride and privilege to have Dr. C. Kusumakara Hebbar, M.Com., Ph.D., Research Guide, University College, Mangalore, as my Research Supervisor. His academic excellence, profound guidance, meticulousness, and accessibility have been a source of great help and immense encouragement to me. His passion for perfection and infinite patience have kept me highly motivated throughout the period of this study. Working under his guidance has been a great learning experience for me. My sincere thanks and heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Hebbar for the total support and guidance for this study.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Madanmohan Rao, author and KM consultant, for his valuable suggestions and inputs to this study.

I am grateful to my friends and members of the K-community of Bangalore, for sparing their valuable time for providing inputs and facilitating in the data collection work.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Rajesh Nayak, for encouraging me to take up this study and keeping me motivated during the course of this study.

I am thankful to Sri. M. Shashidhar Kotian, for assisting me with the necessary statistical analysis of the data.

I would like to thank the Chairman and staff of the Commerce department, and the entire staff of Mangalore University for their timely help and support.

Many of my family and friends have supported and helped me during the course of this study. I am grateful to all of them for helping me and continuously motivating me.
This study would have remained only a dream but for the support and help from my father, Alex D’souza, husband, Sanjay Chaudhuri, son, Abhay Chaudhuri and daughter, Nibha Chaudhuri. It is their love, cooperation, support, help and encouragement throughout, that has motivated me to complete this thesis. I am ever so grateful to them.

I dedicate this work to the fond memories of my dear mom, Late. Monthi Maria D’souza.
