CONTENTS

PREFACE

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

LIST OF CASES

CHAPTER I  NATURE AND MEANING OF RELIGIOUS FREEDOM  1 - 51

1. Meaning of Religion
   A. Definition of Religion: A Dilemma
   B. Basic Common Elements of Religion
      (i) Belief in the Supernatural
      (ii) Belief in the Sacrosanct
      (iii) Worship and Prayer
      (iv) Revelation and Scripture
      (v) Salvation and Deliverance
   C. Meaning of Religious Freedom

2. Some Other Concepts and Religious Freedom
   A. Theocracy: A General Paradigm
      (i) States, Citizen and Religion
      (ii) Equality Before Religion
   B. Internationalism, Human Rights and Religious Freedom
   C. Secularism and Religious Freedom
   D. Constitutionalism and Religious Freedom

3. Religious Freedom-A Retrospect
   A. In Ancient Period
      (i) Religions and Religious Freedom
      (ii) State and Religion
   B. In Medieval Period
   C. In Post-Independence Period

4. Review

CHAPTER II  FUNDAMENTAL RIGHT TO FREEDOM OF RELIGION UNDER ARTICLE 25

1. The Fundamental Freedom of Conscience.'
   (A) Nature and Scope of the Article 25.
   (B) Does Article 25 of the Constitution need Amendment?
   (C) Fundamental Freedom of Conscience.

2. The Fundamental Right to freely Profess and Practice any Religion.
   (A) Right to profess Religion.
      (i) Right to religious Profession.
      (ii) Right to Religious Exhortations.
      (iii) Right to Religious Worship.
   (B) Right to Practise Religion

3. The Freedom to Propagate Religion.

   (A) Restriction on Ground of Public Order, Morality and Health.
   (B) Restrictions imposed by Part III
   (C) Restrictions on Secular and Economic Activities associated with Religion.
   (D) Restrictions on the ground of Social Welfare and Reform.
   (E) Throwing Open of Hindu Religious Institutions.

5. Review
CHAPTER III  FREEDOM TO MANAGE RELIGIOUS AFFAIRS

UNDER ARTICLE 26

1. Freedom to Establish and Maintain Institution for Religious and charitable purpose.
   (i) Difference between Article 25 and 26
   (ii) Religious Denomination: Meaning and Character.

2. Right to Manage its own Affairs in Matters of Religion
   (i) The Essential Rituals
   (ii) The Res in the Temple
   (iii) Ex-Communication

3. The Right to own and Acquire Movable and Immovable Property.

4. The Freedom to Administer such Property in Accordance with Law.

5. Review

CHAPTER IV  FUNDAMENTAL FREEDOM AS TO PAYMENT OF TAXES AND AS TO RELIGIOUS WORSHIP IN CERTAIN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

1. Introduction

2. Freedom As To payment of Taxes for Promotion of Any Particular Religion

3. Freedom As to Attendance at Religious Instructions in Certain Educational Institutions

4. Cultural and Educational rights of Religious Minorities
   i. What is Minority
ii. Scope of Article 29 of The Constitution 206

iii. Clause (i) of Article 29 215

iv. Clause (2) of Article 29 215

v. Significance of Expression 'only' 216

vi. Distinction between Article 29 (2) and Article 15 (1) 220

vii. Article 29 and The Directive Principles 225

viii. Relationship between Article 29 and 30 of The Constitution 229

5. Right of Minorities To Establish And Administer Educational Institutions

i. Right To Establish 234

ii. Type of Institutions which can be established 241

iii. Established Institution to be "of their Choice" 244

iv. Right to Administer Educational Institution 252

v. Minority Institution and Regulatory Measures 255

vi. Right of Recognition/Affiliation of Minority Institutions 273

vii. Scope of Clause (1-A) 283

viii. Scope of Clause (2) of Right to State Aid 283

1. Introduction 290

3. Religious Freedom vis-a-vis Social Welfare and Social Reforms
   (A) Personal Laws and the Religious Freedom,
       (i) Hindu Law
       (ii) Muslim Law
   (B) Regulation of Temple Entry, Right to Darsan and Religious Practices
   (C) Untouchability and Caste Discrimination
   (D) Ex-communication and Hukka Pani Bandh
   (E) Secular Administration of Denominational and other Like Properties.

4. Review.

CAHPTER VI CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS 402 - 733
   BIBLIOGRAPHY 434 - 447
   APPENDIX 448 - 457