ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The completion of this research work has been a long and ceaseless journey full of trials and tribulations, hopes and dismays and could not have been accomplished without the help of some people to whom I owe my gratitude. In this journey of professional development, I have been inspired, advised, and supported to grow academically and spiritually, and very sincerely I would like to give all my gratitude to those who were with me throughout the voyage.

All through the process of accomplishing this work right from the formal registration to the study till its submission, I have felt elated to work under a very renowned professor of management, my mentor Prof. S.K. Bedi. In him I have discovered a wonderful teacher and an excellent guide, and because of his able guidance, valuable suggestions, constructive criticism, keen and sustained interest during the course of investigation as well as in the preparation of the thesis I was encouraged to explore and be better aligned in the research process.

I wish to convey my heartfelt thanks to the staff of IMSAR, MDU, Rohtak, especially Prof. H. J. Ghosh Roy, Director, IMSAR. It is all because of the academic and research environment of IMSAR, MDU I could learn and execute the concept in a stipulated time frame.

I am also grateful to all the respondents surveyed for the purpose of this research study. It was only because of their kind co-operation that this research work could be possible. I wish to place on record my deep sense of appreciation to the staff and officials of different libraries consulted during the course of present investigation.

Words fail to express my deep indebtedness to Dr. (Mrs.) Ratna Phaughat for her constructive suggestions during the process of data analysis. I owe my special thanks to Dr. Sanjay Nandal, Mrs. Sushila Dalal, Mrs. Raj Khasa for their support and unreserved help during the course of study.
I also convey heartfelt thanks to all my friends Seema, Manjit, Renu, Kanta, Virender who helped me at different stages of the present research.

My family had been a constant source of motivation during the research process. I also convey special thanks to my husband Mr. Manjeet Dhill and my sweet baby Tanush for their love and continuous support throughout my research work. I would like to thank each and every member of my family especially my parents, Smt. Bimla Dalal and Sh. A.S. Dalal, my Brothers Mr. Manish and Mr. Kapil for their love, incredibly great confidence, and unbounded support throughout the course of this journey and beyond. I am indeed beholden to the in-laws family for their support and affection during my research work. Their love and support always initiated me to take further steps in life and their silent wishes guided my efforts without which it was not possible for me to reach at this stage. Finally my head bows to Almighty for blessing me with the inner strengths.
