

Acknowledgement

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to those who have contributed to this thesis and supported me in one way or other during this amazing journey of my life since last seven years.

First of all, I am extremely grateful to my supervisor, Dr. D.K. Dubey, for his guidance and all the useful discussions and brainstorming sessions, especially during our tea-break sessions and official proficiency test exercises. His deep understanding in chemistry and also his perspective towards the scientific problem helped me at various stages of my research. He also helped me to grow as a research scientist as well as better human being. You have been tremendous teacher as well as friend for me and I would like to thank you for your priceless support and guidance.

I also thank my Co-supervisor, Prof. (Dr.) Rajeev Jain, Professor, School of Studies in Chemistry, Jiwaji University, Gwalior for his constant encouragement, support and valuable suggestions. I remain amazed that despite his busy schedule, he was always available for me for his support.

Profound gratitude is felt towards Dr. Lokendra Singh, Director, Defence Research and Development Establishment, Gwalior for his constant support and encouragement during preparation of this thesis.

I would also like to take this opportunity to thank to Dr. R. Vijayaraghavan and Prof. M. P. Kaushik, former Directors of Defence Research and Development Establishment, Gwalior for giving me opportunity to carry out my doctoral research.

Special thanks to my colleagues, Dr. Deepak Pardasani, Dr. Pankaj Kanaujia, Mr. Ajay Purhoit, for their unconditional support during my research work.

I express my deep sense of gratitude and affection to Mr. Rahavendra Goud, Dr. Avik Mazumder, Mr. Ajeet Kumar, Mr. Varoon, Mr. Shridhar and Mr. Ankur for all their co-operation during the course of this work.

I am also indebted to my friends Dr. Shailendra Verma, Dr. Mukesh Sharma, Dr. Pradeep Gupta and Dr. Ponmariappan, not only for their valuable suggestions during scientific discussions but also for being there to listen when I needed ear.

It gives me great pleasure to thank my lab attendants Mr. Manoj, Mr. Sonu and Mr. Ratanlal, for their continuous support for maintaining the instrument as well as synthetic lab.

I would be failing in my duties if I do not thank the TIRC staff for helping me to make use of excellent collection of text books, reference books and journals. Thanks are also due to the staff of supporting sections such as Workshop and Stores Department for the help and cooperation during the course of my work.

Words cannot express the feelings I have for my parents for their unconditional support during whole course of my life. I would not be here if it not for you. Thank you very much for whittling me as a human being as I am. Special thanks also due to my younger brother Ajay and sister Sangeeta for the amazing moments of life which we have breathed together.

Finally, I would like to acknowledge to the most important persons of my life, my wife Shakuntala for her continuous support during last six years and my daughter Gungun (Annamayya) for making my life full of enjoyable moments.
