It gives me immense pleasure to record my deep sense of gratitude to Dr.(Miss) S.B. Kulkarni, Scientist, National Chemical Laboratory, Poona-8, for her meticulous planning of this investigation and methodical guidance which made this work possible.

I am thankful to all my friends and colleagues for their whole hearted cooperation and for determining the X-ray, infrared spectra and thermal properties of zeolite samples.

It is indeed gratifying to express my sincere thanks to my husband who has inspired and encouraged me throughout this work.

I take this opportunity to thank the Director, National Chemical Laboratory, Poona-8 for allowing me to submit this work in the form of a thesis for the Ph.D. degree.
