

Acknowledgement

The significance of life consists in helping to establish the kingdom of God; and this can be done only by means of the acknowledgment and profession of the truth by each one of us.

-----Leo Nikolaevich Tolstoy

This thesis is the result of dedicated commitment and hard work in which I have been supported, helped and encouraged by many people. It is a pleasure for me that I have now the opportunity to express my appreciation and gratitude for all of them.

First and foremost, I would like to acknowledge with gratitude, the good providence of Almighty God in providing me this opportunity and for his divine guidance and blessings in all my endeavors and bringing me this for my academic career.

I express my deepest sense of gratitude to my mentor, supervisor and guide Dr. (Mrs) Uma Roy, Deputy Director, Central Drug Research Institute, Lucknow. I fail to gather words to express my immense gratitude to Dr. Roy, who truly is a researcher of an incomparable power of observation and profound intellect. I owe her lots of gratitude for making quality work an integral part of my research work. This thesis is attributed to her expert controlling power, encouraging discussions, keen observation and above all her loving attitude, kind cooperation and regards which she has spontaneously showered on me in all my problems. Her able guidance, rare academic and professional acumen instilled in me a willingness to work harder to achieve my goals.

I take privilege to express my thank and regards to Dr. Tushar kanti Chakarborty, Director, Central Drug Research Institute, Lucknow for his support and providing all necessary environment for carrying out research work.

I am thankful to Dr. J.K. Saxena, Head, Department of Biochemistry, CDRI for his kind support in odd times and help during the course of my research. I am also thankful to Dr. Charu Sharma for her help in presentations and valuable discussions during my research work.

I would like to convey my sincere thanks to Drs. Amogh Sahastrabudhe, M. I. Siddiqi, Neena Goyal, Anju puri, S. Sanyal, Arun Trivedi, Arvind Srivastava, A. Tamrakar and Alka Singh for their immense support.

I would like to extend my thanks to my lab seniors Dr. Rit Vatsyanan, and Mrs. Prachi Bhargava for their constant guidance, care and valuable ideas. I will always remember the pleasant and humorous moments spend with them.

I am also thankful to the technical staff of the Institute- Dr Biswajit Maity, Vineet Pandey, Rampal ji, Ramesh ji, Banwari dada, Ajay Verma and Shyam for their help in all the official and technical issues.

I take this opportunity to thank my seniors - Drs Alok, Shweta, Ashutosh, Saquib, Mayadutt, Neerja, Ranjeet and Kulwant, my colleagues- Ravindra, Bijay, Timir, Santosh, Swayam, Sarika, Rajesh and my juniors - Shashi, Neha, Sandeep, Anita, Pawan, Shiva, Manish Bhaskar, Anuj, Praveen, Rohit, Arun, Sonali, Mansi and Neha Rahuja who made a joyful and excellent working environment in this Institute and are in the true sense, the source of any kind of help one can think of.

I can not forget the names of all my collegeues and juniors of Nainital, presently in Research Institutes at Lucknow- Amit, Santosh, Reema, Lokesh, Hemant, Balram, Tarun and others for the fun and healthy atmosphere we shared together during my stay at Lucknow.

I am highly grateful to my friends Mukesh Verma and Amit Verma who created a very supportive, friendly and enjoyable environment outside the lab.

Thanks are also due to Mr. Lal Bihari, Babulal, Mujeeb and Tripathi ji for their pains taking efforts and helping me in innumerable way.

Above all I express my deep indebtedness to my mother, father, Sisters for their love, inspiration and encouragement which enabled me to accomplish whatever I have. The happy memory of my parents still provides a persistent inspiration for my journey in this life. I am also deeply indebted to my wife Anit for embarking with me on the last stage of this journey. My love is always for my niece Kartik for their childish pranks made me feel unperturbed after a tough day at work.

I acknowledge financial assistance given by Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, New Delhi to accomplish this work.

*(W) W. K. P.
11.4.11
(Kishore Kumar)*

DEDICATED

TO

MY FAMILY