ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In the process of completing this study I have accumulated a series of intellectual debts. Though the idea of the subject was imbibed in my mind for quite some time, it inadvertently got triggered by people I met, read or heard and finally got shaped with an intensive discussion with my supervisor Prof. Savita Pande. I express my sincere gratitude to Prof Pande without whose guidance and support this study would not have seen the light of the day. Her meticulous explanations to my queries and the freedom she provided to interpret the facts and issues are the real motivations behind this endeavour.

During the initial phase, it was stupendous to gather all the relevant documents, programmes, manifestos, and parliamentary debates of the respective parties as the study relies heavily on primary sources. However, the Library staffs of CPI(M), New Delhi, were very cooperative to locate the necessary documents and helped to get them photocopied. The staffs of the Publication Stall at the BJP office (New Delhi) were more than willing to cater to my requirements each time I visited. The Nehru Memorial Museum Library was extremely useful to locate old documents of the Congress party and Jana Sangh. Last but not the least, the JNU Library and the staffs were very helpful in collecting background materials and books, after all provided a comfortable platform to spend hours and hours for reading and browsing journal articles at the Cyber Library. The P.C. Joshi Archives in the Library was extremely helpful for the archival study on Left parties’ programmes. In the process, I have knowingly borrowed or unconsciously partaken from all that came my way relating to the subject to give it a final shape.

Numerous seminars and talks organized by the South Asian Division and School of International Studies during the last five years were extremely helpful in shaping and reshaping my arguments on various issues. The office staffs at the Division are extremely cordial and extended all procedural help without hesitation. More importantly, special thanks to Kaveri Hostel and the Staff to keep me upbeat in every possible way for the last six years.
I express deep gratitude to Air Cmde. Jasjit Singh for his generous moral and intellectual support all along. I am equally thankful to Prof. SD Muni whose affection and encouragement has prompted me always to look beyond the horizon. My senior colleagues at CAPS, Dr Manpreet Sethi and Shalini Chawla, have always encouraged and supported during my hardships. The loving support and appreciation of my hard work by Prof. Abdul Nafey and Amb R Rajagopalan has helped a lot to keep up my inquisitiveness. All my friends in JNU and outside kept me in good cheer through the days of toil. Particularly, I must mention Yeon-Jung Ji, Dr Misu Kim, Nihar, Naresh, Duryodhan, Sweta, Dr Tennyson, Dr Monika Chansoria and many more whose encouraging words and support kept me going.

Finally, it would have been extremely difficult to wind up this study in time had I not the loving family support that I am blessed with. The blessings of my parents have always showed me the right way and strengthened my resolve to tide over all odds. All these years, my elder brothers, sisters and sister-in-laws have freed me from household chores by shouldering all responsibilities for the sake of my studies in whose name I dedicate this research.

New Delhi

July 2011

Sitakanta Mishra
Dedicated to...

Umakant Mishra & Nilima Mishra
Girija Kant Mishra & Sharmistha Mishra

my Brothers and Sister-in-Laws

... whose guidance and affection propel me to climb up each step with determination.