Bibliography
BIBLIOGRAPHY

Listed below are Sartre's major works, chronologically arranged which are translated into English. The year given within the brackets stands for the year of the original French publication.

199
The Chips are Down, tr. Louise Varese, New York, Lear, (1947), 1948.

Situations II, it is partly translated as What is Literature? by B.Frechtmann, New York, Philosophical Library, (1948), 1949.

Other Primary Sources

SECONDARY SOURCES

Barnes, Hazel E., Humanist Existentialism: The Literature of Possibility, Lincoln, University of Nebraska Press, 1959.

ARTICLES

Copleston, Frederick, "What is Existentialism?," The Month, CLXXXIII, 1947.

