ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe a debt of gratitude to several people and institutions who have helped me considerably at the various stages of the preparation of this thesis. Though their list is excessively long, most prominently, I am thankful to:

- Indian Council of Philosophical Research (New Delhi) and UGC for awarding me Junior Research Fellowship.

- Vice-Chancellor and administrative staff of Pondicherry University for providing me with all facilities to carry out the research work in this prestigious institution.

- Professor R. Balasubramanian from whose erudite scholarship I benefitted greatly during these years. He has been very kind to give many suggestions both philosophic and stylistic for the improvement of the thesis.

- my supervisor Dr V.C. Thomas who read the whole draft several times and provided me with a host of valuable suggestions and critical comments.
I remain indebted to him for his constant encouragement, generosity of spirit, and readiness to share his valuable time and wisdom.

- my teachers Professor T.B. Siddalingaiah, Dr K. Srinivas, Dr (Ms) B.R. Shantha Kumari, and Dr (Ms) Veena Arora for their astonishing breadth and depth of scholarship. I consider it to be a great privilege to be associated with them.

- Dr (Ms) M. Venkatalakshmi, Ms Sharada Subramaniam, Mr P. Krishnasamy, Mr T.P.P.D. Rajakumar, Mr E.J. Manimaran, Fr E.P. Mathew, Mr P. Sudarsan, Ms Sindhu L. and all my friends at the M.Phil. and Post-graduate levels for the love and kindness they showered on me. I gratefully acknowledge the innumerable favours I received from them both in my academic and personal life.

- Ms Lucy Thomas for her hospitality and concern and to Anisha and Ashish for their love and mischieves.

- all my friends who made my days eventful and meaningful and especially to Sujatha, who gave me promises. To them and to her I remain indebted forever.

- Mr G. Latchumanan, Ms S. Asha and Ms P. Radjesvary, staff of the Department of Philosophy, for their readiness to help in all possible ways.

- M/s RANK Computers for the excellent execution of the thesis.

- my parents, brother, sister and their children for their moral support and encouragement.
