Acknowledgement

Words are sometimes hard to find when one tries to say thanks for something so priceless as loving criticism, considerate helpfulness and valuable guidance. Too much gratitude and sincerity repel and too little leaves one wanting through facts must be evidently acknowledged and honest thankfulness must be unequivocally stated.

The affectionate nature and heartening words of my Guide Dr. Navnit Agrawal M.D. Associate Professor, Department of Medicine, M.L.B. He has been a constant source of encouragement, and the present study carries at every stage the imprint of his dynamic personality, wise and concrete suggestions and mature seasoned criticism.

It was my proud privilege to have been associated with and remain under constant vigilance of my Co-Guide, Dr. B.S. Jain, M.S. Head of the Department, Ophthalmology, M.L.B. Medical College, Jhansi. This study is a reflection of discerning criticism and seasoned rationale of him.
