My research work required help from every quarter, starting from the University to every single individual whom I have come across while continuing with the thesis.

I am indebted to KIIT University for giving me an opportunity to pursue my Doctoral thesis.

I am immensely blessed to have had Prof. Manoj Kumar Sinha, as my Supervisor, for his able guidance and advice, all throughout the journey.

My words would fall short in expressing my deepest respect and gratitude for Prof. (Dr.) Nirmal Kanti Chakrabarti, Director, KIIT School of Law, without whose unwavering support, encouragement and advice, this work would never have reached this stage.

Suggestions by Prof. Surya Narayan Mishra, Prof. Prafulla Chandra Mishra and Prof. Pradid Kumar Sarkar have helped me in developing my ideas on the said research area. Dr. Shreya Chatterjee, a colleague and friend, deserves a special mention, as she has been with me throughout the journey.

I can never be thankful enough to each of my family members. They have supported me all through in their own way, by putting up with my erratic behaviour. I would especially thank my mother Malati Chakraborty, Mrs. Reena Parekh and Bharti. Yuvraj Nanavati Parekh, my loving husband, words will not be sufficient to express my thankfulness to you for your constant support and the deliberations we had at very odd hours.

I thank the library and office staff for their co-operation in collecting materials and on technical matters as well.

I thank each one of my students who have at times been made to suffer because of my work.

Last but not the least, I wish to express my happiness and thanks to specially, Surya Kant Sahoo, Adishree Mishra, Sudipta Mohanty, Swastik Panigrahi, and Vivek Ayyagiri, for their timely help as and when required, in spite of their academic pressure.
