Acknowledgements

I acknowledge my gratitude and sincere thanks to my supervising teacher Dr. Maya Dutt, Reader, Institute of English, University of Kerala for kindly agreeing to supervise my work. I am indeed most grateful to her for her valuable suggestions and inspiring guidance,

Dr. K. Radha, Professor and Head, Institute of English; Director, Centre for Australian Studies, University of Kerala and Vice-President, Asian Association for the Study of Australia (AASA), for the unstinted and generous support extended to me at every stage of my work,

Dr. Jameela Begum A., Professor, Institute of English; Director, Centre for Canadian Studies, University of Kerala and currently the President, Indian Association for Canadian Studies (IACS) for her valuable suggestions,

Dr. Judith Wright McKinney for the kind gesture of sending me a copy of her Collected Poems 1942-1985, my colleagues at Govt. Victoria College, Palakkad who extended all co-operation to me in my work, my wife Sheela and our two sons Rahul and Atul for their quiet but solid moral support.
Finally, but most importantly, I should acknowledge my gratitude and thankfulness to Mr. George Fernandes, Head master (Retd.), C.F. High School, Kottiyam, Kollam who initiated me into the world of letters nearly four decades ago and later kindled in me an abiding interest in the English language and its literature.
