ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

It would not have been possible to write this doctoral thesis without the help and support of the kind people around me, to only some of whom it is possible to give particular mention here.

To commence with, I pay my obeisance to GOD, the almighty to have bestowed upon me good health, courage and inspiration. I express my sincere and deepest gratitude to my supervisor, Prof. (Dr.) Harbhajan Kaur, Department of Zoology and Environmental Sciences, Punjabi University, Patiala, for giving me this opportunity and also for her precious guidance, help and inspiration. She ploughed through several preliminary versions of my text, making critical suggestions and posing challenging questions. Her expertise, invaluable guidance, constant encouragement, affectionate attitude, understanding, sheer patience and healthy criticism added considerably to my research experience. Without her continual inspiration, it would have not been possible to complete this study.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Devinder Singh, Head, Department of Zoology and Environmental Sciences, for providing me possible laboratory facilities and kind guidance from time to time. I express my thankfulness to all the faculty members for their time to time suggestions throughout the course of my research work.

It is my great pleasure to thank my research colleagues, Dr. Vikas Suman, Dr. Sakshi Jasuja, Dr. Bezuayehu Kerisew, Mrs. Rajdeep Kaur, Mrs. Jaspreeet Kaur, Ms. Nisha Patial, Ms. Kanu Sharma, Ms. Kalchana and Ms. Navpreet Kaur Sekhon for their timely motivation, sincere cooperation, inspiration, sympathetic attitude and keen interest in the
I extend warm thanks to all my friends for their continuous enthusiasm and support.

I will fail in my duty if I do not thank the non-teaching staff for providing me the necessary help and co-operation at every step during different phases of the work.

Finally, but first in my heart, deep gratitude to my family for their continued moral and financial support throughout my studies. My Father, Mr. Surinder Kumar Bansal, in the first place, is the person who put in me the fundamental learning character, showing me the joy of intellectual pursuit ever since I was a child. My Mother, Mrs. Kanta Bansal is the one who sincerely raised me with her care and gentle love. I deeply miss my grandmother Mrs. Nirmala Devi, who is not with me to share this joy.

At last, I sincerely acknowledge the love and support of my sisters Anu, Manu, Saggu, Ishita and Taniya. Special thanks are due to my little brother Naman for his computer skills which helped me a lot during the formation of this manuscript.
