ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

To produce the present work on the Life and Career of Keshavrao Jedhe (1896-1959) I worked for more than four years. For the production of this thesis I received valuable help, co-operation and encouragement from a number of persons and various institutions.

First of all I must express my feelings of greatfulness to my research guide Dr. Arun R. Bhosale, Reader, Department of History, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, under whose supervision I undertook and completed the present study. I am thankful to my research guide for his guidance, help and encouragement at all the stages of my research work.

For collecting necessary source material pertaining to my topic of research I visited a number of libraries and archives. I am very much thankful to the chiefs and the staff of the following libraries for their kind co-operation and help - Barrister Balasaheb Khardekar Library, Shivaji University, Kolhapur, Dr. Balkrishna Library of Rajaram College, Kolhapur, Karveer Nagar Vachan Mandir, Kolhapur, Libraries of Shri Shahaji Chhatrapati College, Kolhapur and Shivaji University's Shahu Research Centre, Kolhapur, Jaykar Library, Poona, Libraries of Shankarrao More Vidyalaya and Junior College, Poona, Chh. Shivaji College, Satara and Arts, Science and Commerce College, Ramanandnagar (Dist : Sangli) I also thank the Director of Maharashtra State Archives for allowing me to have access to the records preserved in the government archives at Bombay.
and Poona. I would also like to thank Dr. Baba Adhav who allowed me to consult source material pertaining to the non-Brahman movement, available in Mahatma Phule Samata Pratishthan Office, Poona. Shri R.M. Patil allowed me to consult the records available in the Dinmitra Mukundrao Patil Trust, Poona and for that I sincerely thank him. I also thank the Manager of Rashtraveer Press, Belgaum for allowing me to consult the old files of 'Rashtraveer'. The library of Shahu Research Centre of Shivaji University, Kolhapur, proved much useful to my study. There I could study rare source material like Pandharinath Patil papers, Madhavrao Bagal papers, the files of old newspapers like 'Hunter', 'Brahmanetar', etc.

I am also grateful to the members of Jedhe family who affectionately made available to me some source material useful for my study. My special thanks are due to Keshavrao's son Late Shri Prataprao Jedhe and grandson Santajirao Jedhe for their help and co-operation.

During the course of my study I called on a number of knowledgeable persons many of whom had actually worked with Keshavrao Jedhe. Despite their advanced age, ill-health and busy schedule of public activities, they granted me personal interviews and placed at my disposal whatever useful material they had with them. I could gather some rare and important information from these persons. Those who granted me personal interviews are: Late Dinkarrao Mane, Late Madhavrao Bagal, Late S.M. Joshi, Tulshidas Jadhav, Bhausaheb Raut, Yashavantrao Mohite, Ganapatrao Nalawade (First Mayor of Poona), Barrister P.G.Patil, Raghav Shivanikar (P.A.to Nana Patil), Pratap Vagh son of Kakasaheb Vagh, Ravindra More (son of Shankarrao More), Smt.Pushpatai Hire (daughter-in-law of Bhausaheb Hire) etc. I am very much indebted to all of them.

While preparing this work many of my friends and colleagues helped me directly or indirectly. I am thankful to all of them, though it is not possible to mention their names here for want of space.

My thanks are also due to Shri B.N.Chopade, Principal of my college, who offered me all kinds of facilities gave me cooperation and also encourage me I also thank Dr.B.R.Kamble, Head, Department of History, Shivaj University, Kolhapur, for his words of encouragement.

Finally Shri Chandrakant Pawar deserves my sincere thanks for the meticulous typing of this thesis.
