ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

With extreme respect and gratitude, I express my indebtedness to Dr. V. Sobha, Professor and Head, Dept. of Environmental Sciences, University of Kerala, for the inspiring guidance, supervision, encouragements and sincere approach throughout the progress of this investigation. It was her positive responses, valuable suggestions and endurance that helped me to develop interest in this subject and to complete this work in time.

I express my heartfelt thanks to Dr. R. Marimuthu, Reader, Dept. of Applied Botany, Periyar University, Tamil Nadu, for the informative useful discussions, suggestions and encouragements from the initial stage onwards. Words cannot express my deep sense of gratitude towards him.

I would like to place it on record my sincere thanks to Rev. Dr. Mathew Daniel, Principal, Prof. C. G. Varughese, Head of the Botany Department, Dr. Thomas P. Thomas and other staff members of the Department, St. Thomas College, Kozhenchery, for their valuable help and encouragements rendered upon me for the completion of this research work.

Thanks are due to Dr. V.R. Prakasom, Reader, Dr. Sabu Joseph, Dr. Salom Gnana Thanga and Dr. Jaya D.S, Lecturers and Mr. C. M Joshua, Sr. Gr. Asst., Dept. of Environmental Sciences, University of Kerala for their generous help and encouragements.

It would be deemed as a dereliction of duty on my part, if I excluded the name of Dr. Prema Paul, former Post Doctoral Research Fellow of this Department who guided to the fascinating world of phytoplankton and inspired me ‘what the algae are’.

With heartfelt gratitude I acknowledge Dr. Santhosh, S. whose affectionate involvement and assistance in all my laboratory experiments and all other valuable helps and enthusiasm that encouraged me a lot.
I am thankful to Mr. P. Unnikrishnan, Mr. B. Baijulal and Dr. M. S Bindhu for their unstinted encouragements, timely suggestions and assistance.

My sincere thanks due to research scholars Mr. Aji, A. T, Mr. Baiju, R. S, Mr. Santhosh, V, Mr. Prijilal, K. G, Mr. Anish Breeze, Mr. Thomas George, Mr. Anish, M, Mr. Dipu, S and Mrs. Shymi, D. S

I would like to thank all other research scholars, M.Phil scholars and M.Sc. students who in one way or other associated with me in this venture.

With overwhelming gratitude and appreciation, I express my obligation to Mr. Judy Emmanuel, Research Scholar of the Dept. of Environmental Sciences for the painstaking collaboration and assistance rendered in all the stages of this investigation.

I bestow my heartfelt gratitude upon my wife Marykutty, Mother, Father and children Deepa and Dipin for their endurance and assistance on all fronts in making the effort fruitful.

Finally, I record my surrender before “The Almighty” who showered all blessings throughout the course of this study and life.
