ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Gratitude is not an act but a state of mind. In this context, I shall eternally remain grateful to all my Gurus, right from my mother till the Almighty, including every speck of this mighty universe. But for their constant, continuous and impartial teaching, my learning would never have become adequate even to attempt a research, let alone complete it.

First and foremost, I humbly and cordially submit this feat to the honour of my beloved periappa, Shri S Thiagarajan, who epitomize Mata, Pitha and Guru for me and forever. His initial toils, during the registration processes, were incredible and remained my perpetual motivator throughout the research.

I would like to remain thankful to Dr C Chandran, Former Professor and Head, Department of Management Studies, School of Business Studies, Madurai Kamaraj University, who could accept me as a research scholar despite many odds and took personal care in guiding this unique and pioneering research for Indian Army. He was always forthcoming, considerate and dispassionate in his approach, analysis and support. His commitment towards this research, despite his busy schedule, was nothing short of astonishing and remained as a key success ingredient.
I thank Brigadier (Dr) V D Abraham (Retd), Sena Medal, Indian Army, Former Pro-Vice Chancellor, Oriental University, Indore MP, who was my co-guide during the research. A great leader, academician and a technocrat, his humane approach to all endeavours of life could endow me multifarious perspectives of HR management in Indian Army. His unflinching support and guidance, throughout my service career and in the research processes, are incredible.

Dr R Bagavathi Muthu, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Economics, Thiagarajar College, Madurai, is my friend, philosopher and guide, right since my childhood. He was of extreme help in refining the research findings and report writing. I reserve my gratitude towards him since we don’t thank friends in Army.

Lastly, I would like to thank my wife Mrs Karthika Ramesh and son Suyan Shanmugam, for putting up with all my tantrums during this research and their silence sacrifice of many Sundays and holidays in last four years, in this bargain.

Last but not the least, I remain eternally grateful to the Almighty, my country and country men, for their constant support in defining and refining meaning to my Life.

Jai Hind.
