I am obliged to Professors Tapas Majumdar and Suresh Shukla who went through an earlier draft of this essay and made suggestions for its improvement. Professor Amrik Singh helped me avoid some extreme and possibly untenable positions. The discussions I had with Dr (Mrs) Karuna Ahmed of the Jawaharlal Nehru University and Mr John Wilmut of the University of Reading only confirmed some of my own formulations. Last but not the least, this essay would not have been possible without the guidance and supervision of Dr Narinder Singh who took keen interest in its development.
