At this juncture of the culmination of my doctoral work, I deem it a privilege to place on record the valuable contributions made by people who stood by me at its every stage.

Primarily, I am indebted to my guide and supervisor
Dr J. Thiyagarajan, M.A., Ph.D., Professor and Head, Department of History (Directorate of Distance Education), Madurai Kamaraj University, Madurai for accepting me as his scholar and for the guidance he provided me. He was instrumental in bringing this doctoral thesis to its present shape. I gratefully acknowledge his devotion to duty. I learnt from him to make the time and energy at my disposal valuable. His numerous suggestions and improvements are discernible in every page of my work. I feel I have responded adequately to his call to achieve high standards of research.

I express my sincere thanks to Dr R. Antony Paul, M.A., M.Phil.,
M.C.J., Ph.D., Head of the Department of History, Arul Anandar College, Karumathur for his inspiration and encouragement to me when I was working with him and after.

I thank Fr Devadoss, S.J., my Provincial Superior, Fr Lazar, S.J., Rector, Fr Joseph, S.J., Secretary and Fr Rajarathinam, S.J., Principal, St Joseph’s College, Tiruchirappalli for having permitted me to visit a few Archives in European countries to collect data for my research.
My gratitude is due to all the esteemed members of the Jesuit Community, Arul Anandar College, Karumathur, St Joseph’ College, Tiruchirappalli, Sacred Heart College, Shembaganur and my Jesuit friends from other communities for their encouragement and support towards my research study.

I place on record my sincere gratitude to Dr Arumai Raj, Ph.D., Head of the Department of History, St. Joseph’s college, Dr Vijay Singh, Dr Gilburt, Xavier and others of the same department for their valuable suggestions for the qualitative improvement of the thesis. My sincere thanks to Fr Edward Jeganathan, S.J., and the Jesuit Madurai Province Archives staff for their fruitful help in data collection and encouragement.

I am glad to express my sincere thanks to my friends Dr A. Joseph Dorairaj, and his wife Dr Magdaline, Dr John Joseph, Dr Selvaraj, John Paul, and Cruz for their constant support. I extend my sincere thanks to the Staff members of Arul Anandar College and St. Joseph’s college for their moral support in my research work.

I recall with gratitude the love, prayerful support and encouragement of my parents, Mrs Amalorpavam and Mr A.Gnanapragasam and other family members Mr Ignacimuthu, Thaines Mary, Sr Josie, Selvi, Arasi, Sophi, Anand and others, as I was progressing in my research work.

Above all, I thank the Lord Almighty for having showered His Choicest Blessings on me and enhancing my determination to contribute to the society through my work.

(Fr G. Joseph Antony Samy SJ)
