ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Indeed, words are mere sounds that reflect a sense of helplessness in making acknowledgements. The overwhelming response shown by Dr (Mrs) Najma Zaheer Baquer, is hardly measurable. As such I can offer only this most inadequate expression of my deep sense of gratitude for her constant and ceaseless guidance throughout the course of this work.

My sincere thanks are also due to:

Professor Sivatosh Mookerjee, F.N.A. and Professor P.C. Kesavan, former Deans, School of Life Sciences, Jawaharlal Nehru University, who not only encouraged me but also showed keen interest in my work since its inception.

Professor Asis Datta, Dean, School of Life Sciences, for providing necessary facilities and giving valuable and helpful suggestions.

Dr Ali Baquer, Dr Rajendra Prasad and Dr Pranav Prakash, for being affectionate and kind to me.

Kazmi, Lalit, Gurcharan, Krishna, Madhavi, Murthy and Faruq Ali, whose immense help throughout the work, kept the ball rolling.

V.K.N.K. Menon, Angeli Menon, Sudipto Das, Jai Parkash and A.S.N. Reddy, for their invaluable help.
Trivedi, Sharan, Vishnu, Verma, Rao, Anil, Sudhir, Natarajan and Sonone, for friendly gestures and encouragements.

Dr Edmund S. Copeland, National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Maryland, USA, for providing me with the manuscript of his paper, which helped me pursue with ease, the latter part of my work.

Schidanand Sinha, who came to my rescue at the fag end of the work and helped me draw a few line diagrams.

Mr A.C. Alexander, for helping me operate the instruments.

Mr R.N. Saini for taking gel photographs, and Mr Satya Pal Singh, for his excellent technical help.

My family members who stood by me at all times.

Jawaharlal Nehru University, for providing financial help in the form of Junior and Senior Research Fellowships.

Chandra Shekhar K. Mayanil