ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This thesis is more than the sum of my own efforts, the largest contribution being that of Professor R.C. Sharma, by way of his infectious enthusiasm, meticulous and patient supervision and an unabated interest in my work. This interest has been reflected in a number of ways, not least by his careful comments on the text of the study.

I would also like to acknowledge a few of the numerous debts incurred in the presentation of this study and I owe to,

- Late Professor Mohammad Anas for stimulating discussion;
- Professor W.B. Fisher, Professor E. Sunderland and Mrs. Nasira Sharma for constructive criticism;
- Mr. D.A. Rubiya, H.R. Amiri, M. Gharehbaghian for translation of data from Persian source;
- Mr. A.S. Dalvi, D.B. Damble, Dr. S. Dwivedy and B. Naik for their encouragement insightful comments;
- Members of the faculty, Centre for the Study of International Politics and Organisation, Jawaharlal Nehru University for help on various occasions;
- Mr. S.D.S. Rawat for accurate typing;
- The Government of Orissa for granting me a research fellowship;
- The School of International Studies for granting four months field trip to United Kingdom.
- Dr. K.P. Dhurendar and S. Malakar for their cartographic assistance.

Barkatullah Khan

New Delhi
April, 1984