(Meeting in a bookstore)

Mary : Hi Yogita. Are you getting a book?

Yogita : No, I’m just looking for a magazine.

Mary : So am I. There’s Shubha over by the magazines. Hi, Shubha.

Yogita : Hi, Shubha.

Shubha : Hi Mary, hi Yogita. Are you looking for magazines too?
Yogita : Yes, I need to find something that’s easy to read and fun.

Shubha : Me too. I like to read about fashions and famous people and all that.

Mary : I do, too. But then I get annoyed because the people in the stories are only interested in their money and the possessions.

Shubha : And what other people think of them...

Mary : And the latest fashions....

Yogita : I hate that.

Mary : So do I.

At a Hospital
(In Anand Patel's room)

Yusuf : How are you, Anand? How does it feel in the hospital?
Anand : Terrible. I’m confined to bed.
Yusuf : Take heart. Don’t think about it.
Anand : It’s all very well for you to say!
Yusuf : I know. We all miss you on the playground. Come back soon.
Anand : I will if I can.
Yusuf : Hey, do you know which is the longest word in English?
Anand : Do you think, I know? And would I remember it just now even if I did know it?
Yusuf : Hey, come on, give it a try.
Anand : ‘G-e-o-g-r-a-p-h-i-c-a-l-l-y’
Yusuf : No
Anand : I give up.
Yusuf : Simple It’s ‘smiles’
Anand : How come? It has only five letters.
Yusuf : Don’t you see? In this word, there’s a mile between the first letter and the last. (Anand smiles)
Yusuf : Now that’s better. More like you. Anyway I think I will push off now.
Anand : Wait a little while longer.
Yusuf : No, you need rest. I’ll come again OK? Get well soon. We are all waiting for you.
   Ta-Ta,
Anand : Ta-ta.
