ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This study reflects the efforts of a number of individuals who have contributed in various ways at different stages for the work. I would like to express my deep sense of gratitude to my most venerated guide Dr. V.B. Bhise, Reader, Department of Economics, Marathwada University, Aurangabad. I am greatly indebted for generous help, valuable suggestions and constant encouragement time to time throughout period of this study. The present work was initiated, conducted and completed under his gifted guidance, without which it would not have been possible for me to complete this study within quite a reasonable period. I shall never be to thank him adequately.

I also express my sense of gratitude to Dr. G.S. Kalyankar, Professor and Head, Department of Economics, Marathwada University, Aurangabad, for extending his help, and co-operation to me. My humble thanks are also due to him for providing me junior fellowship under SAP.

I am particularly grateful to Dr. U.S. Panpatte for his advice and assistance during my study. I am also thankful to Dr. P.J. Keche and Shri. S.H. Jagadale for their help.

The tedious work of processing of data could not have been undertaken without the valuable assistance of Shri. Ram Joshi in the use of computer.

It is my duty to express my sense of gratitude towards my friends Shri. Sitaram Hake, Shri. Shiwaji Sangale, Shri. Ramrao Hake, Shri. P.M. Gaikwad, Shri. Rajendra Bade, Dr. C.S. Tembhurnikar and Shri. Vilas Panpatte.

I greatly indebted to my brother Shri. Ramesh Kute, who have been to me a continuous encouragement during the course of this research work. I am also grateful to my parents for providing a suitable atmosphere for my research work.

I could make extensive use of the library facilities extended to me by the Marathwada University, Aurangabad and Gokhale Institute of Politics & Economics, Pune. I express my thanks to them.

I have collected some statistical data from the office of the Divisional Statistical Officer, Aurangabad; the office of the Superintendent of Agriculture, Divisional Office, Aurangabad; the office of the Director of Agriculture, Poona; the office of the Maharashtra Agricultural Industries Development Corporation etc. I thank all them for providing me the required data.

Last but not the least, I am very thankful to Digisoft Computers and Shri. Ramesh N. Joshi for the long hours of typing of this manuscript and the large number of tables contained in it.

Lastly, I am thankful to all them who have directly and indirectly helped me in completing the present study.
