ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I owe a special debt of gratitude to my Supervisor Dr S.K. Desai, Professor and Head, Department of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur who guided this study. He has helped shape my ideas with meticulous care and exemplary patience. He offered many valuable insights and criticisms during the course of my work, and his unfailing interest and enthusiasm constantly encouraged me to complete this study. This formal acknowledgement is but an inadequate expression of my profound gratitude to him.

I am grateful to the authorities of Shivaji University for the financial assistance which enabled me to visit the libraries in Bombay, Pune and Hyderabad. I should like to thank the Librarians of Shivaji University, particularly for making available to me all the TLS Volumes from the beginning to to-date, Bombay University, specially for getting me most of the original works of Edith Sitwell, Central Institute of English and Foreign Languages for giving me an access to most of the past numbers of important periodicals related to my research area, and University of Poona for allowing me to use the library. I am also grateful to late Professor Alex Rodger of Edinburgh University who gave me some valuable insights in the field of Stylistics during my stay in Edinburgh.
I am grateful to my colleagues in the Department of English, Shivaji University, Kolhapur for their constant encouragement, particularly, Dr. V. V. Badve and Dr. P. B. Deshpande who read the final manuscript of the thesis.
