This thesis is dedicated to my parents
Smt. Kokilaben and Shri Dhansukhbhai Mithaiwala

Janki Mithaiwala
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I am grateful to all those who have enlightened my path in search of new directions. They may have come across wearing masks hiding their identities, but they have revealed the secrets. The divine poured sudden surprises in my path that gave me no delusion but led me through the deep rivers of mystifications towards a sea of fathomless clarity.

-Thou hast made me known to friends whom I knew not.
-Thou hast given me seats in homes not my own.
-Thou hast brought the distance near and made a brother of the stranger.

-Rabindranāth Tagore (Old and New)

There are some who have carved their niches on my path towards the unknown, and I don’t want to lose this opportunity to present my gratitude to them.

Foremost, I want to offer my gratitude to my Guide, Dr. Neerā Grover for putting her faith in me and my subject. She has been very kind to give continuous encouragement and liberty to explore. She bolstered my morale whenever I was shaken and showed me correct path being my real support.

I am grateful to my Guru, Dr. Prabhā Atre, who has always given me strength to think independently and believe in myself. She has enriched my thinking about music and has been an immense inspirational force throughout my journey.

I thank my spiritual guru Sri Sri Ravishankar ji for the understanding of life and its philosophy and its connection with my art ‘music’.

The word grateful goes small when it comes to them … my mother Smt. Kokilāben and father Shri Dhansukhbhai Mithāiwala, who always have stood by me with unflinching faith through all times and ensuring them the most joyous ones.

Loving thanks to my sister Maitri for guiding me in very subtle aspects of the subject and my friend Jigishā for absolute faith in my potential and dedication towards my work; which played a crucial role in increasing my confidence.
I am thankful to my dear little Kānhā for ardently keeping up my spirits high and providing me all the love and warmth whenever I looked-for.

Special thanks to Kalāpibhai for adding that extra edge of beauty and simplicity to the language of my thesis with extreme adeptness.

I am thankful to Vaidehi and Meerā, for changing the dimension of my writing by adding the richness of the language English. I am also thankful to Monāli for her immense support and absolute faith in me.

I am very much thankful to Shri Pankaj Pārekh for his support in my whole journey and for the beautiful presentation of this thesis.

I am also thankful to Bhumikā, Smrutididi, all my friends, relatives and colleagues for their support whenever I needed.

The interviews taken in initiating the subject have reinforced the concept, where I am thankful to Mr. Louis Banks, Sir D Wood, Mr. Benny, Mr. Bismark D’costa, Pt. Ronu Majumdar, Pt. Vishwamohan Bhatt, Ms Dhanāshri Pandit and all. I am also thankful to all the artists who have given direction to my inquest and helped me to develop awareness about the quality of music.

I am grateful to all my Gurus because of whom my understanding about Indian Music and ‘Music as a whole’ has grown. I am thankful to the ‘Faculty of Performing Arts’, M.S.U., Baroda and S.N.D.T., Mumbai where I could explore music in detail as a study.

I am thankful to all the librarians and their staff of the libraries I have used, specially the library at NCPA, Music College Baroda, and S.N.D.T. Mumbai for their co-operation.

I am thankful to all authors I have come across, and who have made my study quite easy and also to the experimentalists in music who have not limited their music to its tradition but experimented with vigor to search.

I am grateful to each and every little iota on this universe for granting me this opportunity to research and helping me to accomplish the finality.

- Janki Mithaiwala