ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

1. Government of India, Dept. of Space, I.S.R.O., who made available technical and economic data on INSAT - 1A & 1B.

2. National Council of Educational Research & Training, who made available data on expenditure on Central Film Library and other records about films and equipment.

3. Films Division, Ministry of Information and Broadcasting for providing information on costs of film production and related processes.

4. E.T.T.D.C. for furnishing economic and technical data on low-power T.V. transmitters on Questionnaire IV.

5. Bharat Electronics Ltd., (BEL) for furnishing economic and technical data on high-power T.V. transmitters on Questionnaire V.

6. Electronics Corporation India, Ltd.,(ECIL) for furnishing economic and technical data on Direct Reception Sets(D.R.S.) on Questionnaire No.VI.

7. Four Indian Firms manufacturing 16 mm sound film projectors, viz M/S KELTRON, R.C.A., Photophone, 16 MM. Projectors Ltd., and Cine Sales India, for furnishing economic and technical data on 16 mm projectors, on Questionnaire IX.

8. The President, Executive members, and members of the All India Association of Maps & Charts Publishers, for furnishing economic and technical data on charts on Questionnaire No.I.

9. Manufacturers in India of V.C.R. and television for furnishing economic and technical data on V.C.R. and T.V. monitors on Questionnaire No.III.

11. Government of India, Ministry of Education and Social Welfare, whose publications, "Education in India " and "Satyam Committee Report" on INSTAT Television utilisation for Education and Development were made use of in the present study for cost of television programme production, cost of television studio building and equipment.